FATHER KIDNAPS AND KILLS HIS TWO CHILDREN

Makes Good Threat Sent to Wife.

Walter Scholl, a confessed confidence man, who last week wrote his wife, from whom he was estranged, that he was about to kill his two children by a former marriage, made good that threat. It was revealed yesterday when the bodies of the two, Donald, 6 years old, and Vivian, 3, were found with their bodies in a bathtub in the bathroom of a deserted house in Gary, Ind.

Acting on the worried, bewildered pleas of Mrs. Margaret Scholl, Gary police yesterday, for the third time since last Thursday, went to the south-west part of town, into the newly built up section near Ridge road. They stopped in front of the bright new bungalow at 3774 Vermont street, where, according to Mrs. Scholl's letter from her husband, they would find the bodies of her foster children.

Crash Door; Find Bodies. The police broke down the door and made their way into the bathroom. On a makeshift bed of old blankets and a quilt or two lay the bodies of the children. They had been dead, physicians believe, since a week ago Monday or Tuesday.

Donald was wearing a dark blue suit; his white blouse was crumpled, and his mouth was badly cut, as if he had twisted about in a futile, childish attempt to get away from the towel, saturated with water, which had been pushed over his nose. His shoes had been kicked beneath the bathtub. Vivian's shoes were off; the ends of her dress were smoothed out. There were cuts and bruises about her mouth and chin, near the spot where the soaked towel had been tied.

Two Addresses Only Cited. The towels, their work done, had slipped down. In the bedroom, off the bathroom, cigar stubs, perhaps twenty-five of them, were scattered over the floor. In one corner was a bundle of clothes, the linen, some fresh, some soiled, of two little children. The package was addressed to the Rev. Father Timothy Dempsey, 1207 North 4th street, St. Louis, and the return address was W. Scholl, 5119 Lotus avenue, St. Louis.

Beyond that there was no clue. Police, searching for Scholl, wired the authorities in Pittsburgh, to see if he might return to the home of his father, Charles Scholl, 117 West Ohio street, there.

Never Seen by Neighbors. It was a week ago Monday that Scholl rented the bungalow from Leroy Quinn, Gary real estate operator. The nearest neighbor is across the street and down a quarter of a block. No body in the vicinity ever saw Scholl or the children, nor did they hear anything in the house.

Jens W. Jorgensen of 4453 North Laramie avenue, Chicago, an attaché of the juvenile court, received two letters from Scholl last Thursday. Mrs. Jorgensen was an intimate friend of Mrs. Scholl. One letter was to Mr. Jorgensen, the other to Mrs. Scholl.

Tired of Life, Scholl Writes. In both the father declared that he was tired of life and wanted to commit suicide, but didn't want to leave his children alone. He predicted that he would kill them and then "follow soon." He directed his wife to go to the Gary address if she cared to find the children's bodies.

Jorgensen telephoned the Gary police Thursday. They went to Vermont street, but were unable to find the right number. Again on Friday they made a trip which was unsuccessful.

Meanwhile Mrs. Scholl, who is employed as a housekeeper in the home of A. B. Pollack, 6027 Kenmore avenue, was walking the streets, weeping and nervous. On Sunday night the Jorgensons reported to her that Scholl had been seen near the Lady of Victory church in North Laramie street, and had implored the priest to try and find his wife for him. He had promised to return soon.

Wife Calls Gary Police. Mrs. Scholl grew more worried. Yesterday she herself called the Gary police, and at 3 o'clock a squad went to the bungalow and made the discovery.

BIG G.O.P. WARDS AND SOUTH SIDE SEND UP TOTAL

Keen Interest Seen in Election.

Chicago men and women yesterday demonstrated their interest in the mayoralty campaign by turning out in unprecedented numbers and breaking all records for the number of voters registered.

Before the registration of yesterday there had been 997,651 voters on the lists in the fifty city wards. That was the total eligible to vote at the primaries on Feb. 22. A total of 169,191 inscribed their names on the books yesterday, swelling the total un-revised registration to the unprecedented figure of 1,167,042.

It is probable that in the ordinary course of revision some 50,000 will be stricken from this figure, but even after the erasure of that number the total will still be far above the previous record registration of 1,054,885 in the presidential year of 1924. Last fall, in spite of the efforts made by all parties, the total revised registration was only 875,281 before the county election.

Sharp Division Is Seen.

Politically considered the rush to register was a battle between two radically different sections of the city.

The three wards in the so-called black belt—the Second, Third and Fourth—appeared to be out to establish a new record. The Second registered 8,212, the Third 9,737, and the Fourth, which is only partly in the black belt, 7,405. More than half of this registration is likely to be destroyed by revision, however. The registration in this territory is supposed to be favorable to the cause of William Hale Thompson.

The Hyde Park wards adjoining the black belt, the residence wards on the north side and those on the northwest sides, where small home owners live seemed determined to wipe out this advantage. The registration in these wards was unusually heavy. The banner ward of the city was the Thirty-seventh, the home of Fred Lundin, the bitterest foe of Thompson.

Dever Managers Pleased.

The Dever managers were particularly pleased with the showing made by the north side wards. They pointed out that the ward outside of the black belt, which showed the heaviest registration was the Forty-ninth, the only one carried by Litalager at the Republican primary election. This ward added 6,587 to its total registration.

The Englewood wards also made an exceptional showing.

The river wards fell far behind the others. The registration in these wards was only one-third to one-half of what it was in the residence wards.

Figures Break Record.

The following table shows yesterday's registration, the total un-revised registration for the mayoralty election and the registration before the last mayoralty election four years ago:

Evanston Boy Police Chief Is Dismissed

Chief of Police William A. Wiltberger, college trained executive, who wouldn't resign to please members of the Evanston council, was summarily dismissed at 4 p. m. yesterday by Mayor Charles H. Bartlett.

In a brief statement, made after the mayor had announced the ousting to the council last night, Chief Wiltberger asserted that he had become an unwanted person because he "didn't wear suspenders."

Chief Says He Improved Police. "I have fought for the best interests of the police profession and the city of Evanston," he declared. "I have stood for principles against politics. It is well known that I have been active in some prosecutions that have made enemies. I refused to resign because there was no justifiable reason for demanding it."

The chief also said the police department had improved during his regime. Mayor Bartlett asserted, however, that he demanded the resignation because of the turmoil among the police. Capt. Charles F. Pasch has been appointed acting chief by the mayor.

Council Lets Mayor Do It.

On Feb. 15 Chief Wiltberger made a charge that organized crime controlled the police work and that no matter whether he stayed or was forced out, the citizens of the community would have to face the fact. A few days later the council was asked to vote on a motion that he be dismissed. The balloting, while it indicated an aversion to the college-trained sleuth, put the proposal that he be thrown out up to the mayor. The mayor acted.

Zion City Police Seize Still; First in Months

For the first time in months police of Zion City, Ill., discovered a still in operation within their bailiwick yesterday. A raid upon a bakery, operated by Thomas McCumb, netted 2 barrels of mash and a dozen gallon jugs of moonshine, all of which was confiscated by Assistant Police Chief T. R. Becker. McCumb was released under $2,000 bonds by Police Magistrate Eric Terry.

$26,407,692 in Income Tax Is Paid Here

A total of $26,407,692.80 in income taxes for 1926 had been paid into the offices of Collector of Internal Revenue Mabel G. Reinecke at midnight, when collections ceased. Last year at the same time the total collected in this (Chicago) district was $19,327,305.82.

Rush in Final Hours.

Hundreds crowded into the federal building during the evening to file their returns before the expiration of the legal time, but the crush was not so great as in former years. Mrs. Reinecke considered the record good and credited the earlier returns to a better understanding of the provision of the law.

The largest corporation tax that had been received last evening was $1,112,000 and the largest individual return $580,000. Two returns were for the smallest possible amount of tax, 1 cent each. One was for exactly 2 cents.

The cash taken in was guarded by heavily armed government employees. After it had all been gathered it was conveyed to an armored car outside the federal building and then to the Federal Reserve bank for deposit. Mrs. Reinecke asserted that she expected the total tax to be somewhat larger than that for 1925.

TREASURY HANDLES BILLIONS.

Washington, D. C., March 15.—(AP)—Money flowed in and out of the treasury today in perhaps the largest volume for any day since the war, the turnover reaching into the billions.

At nightfall Secretary Mellon estimated that holders of at least $1,000,000,000 of the outstanding second Liberty loan bonds had accepted in place of those securities, the latest offering of five year treasury notes. Mr. Mellon was confident that his estimate of $600,000,000 would be good for the total of income tax collection for the first quarter of the year, which were due today, thus giving promise of a possible reduction.

Activity Cheers Officials.

General optimism prevailed at the treasury over the acceptance of its proposal for meeting the second Liberty loan issue. More than $3,000,000,000 of these bonds, which bear 4 1/2 per cent interest, had to be met in 1925.

While the new treasury notes bear only 3 1/2 per cent interest, this rate is above that of other current government issues and holders of the 4 1/2 per cent bonds stood liable to have their bonds called in by next fall.

Interest Goes On to May 15.

The bonds were selling on the market today at slightly above par, but in return for this the government has agreed to pay interest until May 15 on bonds converted now.

How many of the original purchasers of the second Liberty loan bonds still were in possession of them today was not known, but reports from the banks of the federal reserve system, which are acting as agents for the government, showed that many $50 bonds were among those turned in for the new treasury notes.

The treasury also was busy today meeting the payment of $660,000,000 in treasury notes dated May 15, 1923, which fell due today. To meet this demand, Secretary Mellon sold $460,000,000 in certificates of indebtedness. This sum, along with today's income tax collections, will be sufficient to meet retirement of the notes and other government expenses until June 15.

What Stone Men Found.

At noon today they found this situation: Gov. Small yesterday summoned to Springfield the chairman of the county committees he thought he controlled. The orders were to bring at least two men from each county and the chairman were to come if possible. At the same time, Gus Johnston of Paxton, chairman of the Republican state committee, was at the capital.

There had been talk of making Johnston temporary chairman of the convention. At that time it was thought he was unprejudiced. But when he arrived here, it is said, he announced, before considering the merits of the case, that he would rule that the Stone delegates from Peoria could not vote at any time. This was the rub of the whole situation. The Stone delegation from Peoria was elected by a regularly called and organized convention. They had the only credentials signed by a county chairman and secretary. And yet Johnston took the position, it was reported, that they had no standing in the convention.

Steam Roller Looms.

This would have left the Stone forces with only thirty-four votes—twenty from La Salle county and thirteen from Knox county. And the Small forces,

...of concrete road inducements, could muster a total of thirty-eight today.

And they submitted to this program they would have been steam rolled faster than any panicle that ever spread a breakfast table. Under the circumstances they determined they would not be quiet with what they believed right on their side. It meant what politicians call strong arm work and such leaders as State Treasurer Kinney, former State Senator Easton, Oscar N. Custer of Galesburg, W. C. Jones, and Cecil C. McAvoy are not accustomed to using that sort of tactics.

Checkmate Small Forces.

Having heard that the Small forces were prepared to go to any length to get possession of the convention hall, that they had issued orders for their henchmen to be on hand and capture the chairs half an hour before the time for convening, the Stone forces rushed out tickets which were issued to the county chairman and to the press.

At least one of the Small chairmen, William R. Teece of Bureau county, refused to accept his tickets. He insisted that the doors be opened to all comers. He stood in a dangerous jam outside the doors and made his demand on the policemen stationed there.

The crush at this point was terrific. One report was that a door had been smashed down. That was untrue but it was necessary for their safety to hustle away a number of women who had been caught in the jam.

And when the crowd was admitted to the ballroom, the La Salle and Knox county delegations and the regular delegation from Peoria county were in their seats. They totaled fifty-nine in a convention of ninety-seven delegates.

Custer Heads Convention.

There was considerable confusion, but business started when former Senator Easton nominated former State Treasurer Custer for temporary chairman. His motion was seconded by W. C. Jones of Streator. Easton put the motion. It was carried by acclamation and Custer literally leaped to the platform in a manner that would have done credit to a man several years his junior.

In spite of the disturbances the Stone organization put through a clear record of business. Delegate Jones, with seconds from several, moved that the convention renominate Justice Stone. This was passed by a roll call by counties.

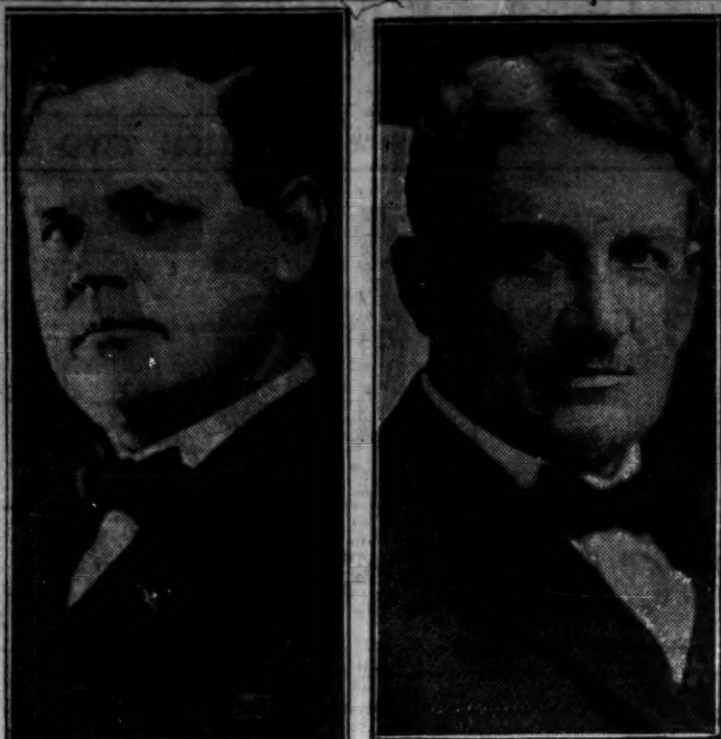

Convention Adjourned.

Harry J. Cook, chairman of the La Salle county committee, moved that the convention adjourn. The La Salle and Knox delegates and the regular delegation from Peoria county walked out of the room.

In the meantime the Small delegates were milling around on the ballroom floor. After numerous conferences they determined to proceed with the irregular Peoria delegation seated and voting. As a matter of fact this group claimed the operations by voting to seat itself after the credentials committee had gone through a lot of motions calling for an investigation of the supposed contest.

Later the Small convention accepted its credentials committee's report with open arms. Its main point was the seating of the contesting Peoria delegation, and on that point the contesting Peoria delegation cast its twenty-five votes. And without those votes there would have been only thirty-eight for the report, less than the necessary majority, as the total convention vote is ninety-seven.

BATTLE FOR SUPREME BENCH

Justice Clyde Stone, who was nominated to succeed himself as Supreme court justice from the Fifth district by regular Republican convention.

Robert Scholes of Peoria, speaker of state house of representatives, who was put up for the Republican nomination, for justice of the Supreme court for the Fifth district by a rump convention.

WOMAN, FACING MURDER TRIAL, TRIES SUICIDE

Mrs. Mary Simonian, 40 years old, attempted to end her life in the county jail yesterday while a jury was debating the fate of a husband and wife who are named as co-defendants with her on a murder charge. Mrs. Simonian failed to appear at the start of the trial of John Mouradian, 6406 West Grand avenue, and his wife, Mrs. N. Mouradian, and she will have her guilt determined by another jury later.

Mouradian and his wife are charged with the murder of Oscar Mardochian, 5744 West Grand avenue. It is charged by the state that they stabbed him to death and wounded his brother, Mike, last July. Remarks made about the character of Mrs. Simonian brought about the stabbing, it is charged. The jury was looked up last night after it had argued for eight hours without reaching a verdict.

Mrs. Simonian became unruly and Warden Edward J. Fogarty ordered her placed in solitary confinement. Shortly after she tried to use the wash of her dress for a rope. Her attempt was discovered by Mrs. Adele Kuman, the matron, and she was attended by the jail physician.

FEMINIST LEADER OMITS "OBEY" AS SENATOR'S BRIDE

Dill-Jones Nuptial Knot Tied in Church.

New York, March 15.—(Special.)—Rosalie Jones, "general" in the army of suffrage, and heiress to a $5,000,000 estate, today became the bride of Clarence C. Dill, United States senator from the state of Washington.

Miss Jones is an ardent feminist and Mr. Dill, who went to congress at the age of 30 and entered the senate in 1923 at the age of 38, is a diplomat as well as a statesman.

Miss Jones today promised to love and honor, but "obey" was eliminated from the ritual. She also announced that in her professional life—she is a member of the New York state bar—she will remain "Miss Rosalie Jones." None gave the bride away for, as she said, "I guess I am big enough to take that responsibility."

ALD. M'DONOUGH RECEIVES DEATH THREAT IN NOTE

Detectives last night sought the anonymous writer of a death threat letter received by Ald. Joseph McDonough (18th), who in the recent primaries defeated among others Dingbat Obera, reputed Joe Salts henchman. The note, scrawled on a piece of plain paper, apparently came as an aftermath of the murders of Lefty Kondil and Big Hayes Hubback, also Salts lieutenants. It said:

"Kondil is gone. You are next, Pighthead. From who will."

Ald. McDonough said he was unable to recognize the handwriting of the note and declared he was seriously concerned over it.

Several hundred of Kondil's friends, including Salts and members of his beer running gang, gathered yesterday at the Kondil home, 5428 South May street, where funeral services for the dead gangster were held. Kondil was buried in the Bohemian National cemetery.

Two squads of police under Sergt. John Tracy and William A. Balswick were on hand in case of disorder. Before the services Salts requested Sergt. Balswick to move one of the police cars, to relieve traffic congestion, he said, but Balswick refused.

WEAPON WAS OUT OF REACH.

Ray Taguey, 4423 Greenview avenue, a labor organizer, was dismissed in the Peoria street court yesterday on a charge of carrying a deadly weapon. Testimony showed that when he was arrested he had a pistol in his automobile, but that it was out of his reach.

150 FRIENDS HONOR WOMAN ON HER NINETIETH BIRTHDAY

Congratulations in the form of scores of letters, telegrams, gifts, and flowers from friends all over the country reached Mrs. Charlotte Prentiss Browning yesterday when she celebrated her ninetyeth birthday, and last night 150 Chicago friends attended a birthday party given by her daughter, Mrs. Frank J. Loeach, at the Drake hotel.

Mrs. Browning, a member of one of America's oldest families, was born in Cooperstown, N. Y., the year Abner Doubleday laid out the first baseball diamond there. Her father was Col. John Homes Prentiss, founder and editor of the Freeman's Journal, the first newspaper published in Chicago county. In her girlhood Mrs. Browning was a friend of James Fenimore Cooper, the novelist, whose grandfather founded Cooperstown, and others of her neighbors there, where she has lived all of her 90 years, were Edward Clark, first president of the Singer Sewing Machine company, and "Dime Novel" Beadler, who wrote and published the first dime thriller.

Still active and in perfect health, Mrs. Browning's chief delight is traveling. Two years ago she celebrated her birthday in Jerusalem. She attributes her long life to "early hours, simple food, and a quiet conscience." "Young people," she observes, "should never themselves in church work and be more devoted to their parents, as I've always been."

Among the guests who helped celebrate her birthday last night were Dr. John Timothy Stone, Dr. James Stone, Mrs. Edith Rockefeller McCormick, Mrs. William Borden, Mr. and Mrs. John M. Zane, Mr. and Mrs. William Burry, Mrs. George Meeker, Mrs. Anthony Merrill (a niece of James Fenimore Cooper III), Mrs. Alexander Stephenson, Mr. and Mrs. John Crear, and Fred Tuttle.

EVANSTON POLICE SEIZE PROFESSOR AS 'PEEPING TOM'

H. E. Edwards, 34 years old, who claims to be a professor of education at Emanuel college, Berlin, Springs, Mich., and a member of the 1926 class of Northwestern university, was seized by Evanston police last night as a "peeping Tom."

During the evening several complaints had been received by the police from residents in the vicinity of 1910 Sherman avenue, Evanston, that a man was peeping into their windows. The police seized Edwards in an alley at the rear of the home of E. Walker, 2010 Sherman avenue. Walker said he was sure Edwards was the man who had been peeping in his windows and declared he would sign a complaint against him.

Edwards, who said he has been living in the Y. M. C. A. hotel, 322 South Wabash avenue, denied the charges.

AGED WOMAN AND A FIREMAN ARE SMOKE VICTIMS

An aged woman was overcome by smoke and a fireman was overcome and slightly injured in a blaze which late yesterday afternoon threatened to destroy a six story apartment building at 1140 Morse avenue. The flames spread so fast that a 3-11 alarm was sent in.

The woman, Mrs. Nancy Gilbert, 57, was found in a semi-conscious condition in her apartment on the second floor of the building by Fireman Harry Gill and Michael Stuchra of engine company 70.

A physician was called and Mrs. Gilbert revived. She was said last night to have recovered from the shock. Fireman John McCady, of Engine company 102, was also overcome by smoke in attempting to fight his way through the apartments of the building to make sure all the occupants had escaped. He was removed to the fire station at Greenleaf avenue and Broadway, where he was revived.

SUMMER WILL CONTINUE TODAY, FORECAST SAYS

Summerlike temperatures that prevailed in Chicago yesterday are to continue today, according to the weather bureau prediction. The sunny skies, however, are to be replaced by partly cloudy conditions and some rain is expected tomorrow. A reaction to lower temperatures is indicated by Friday.

Wife Battles in Vain to Halt Husband's Suicide

Henry Foel of Chicago Ridge killed himself by slashing his throat with a razor last night despite the struggle of his wife to disarm him. Her screams aroused their son, Chester, 12 years old, who ran for help, but neighbors did not reach the house in time to prevent the suicide. Foel was a school trustee, and because of a row over a school site, it was said he had been asked to resign. Four other children ran from their room and witnessed their father's act.

PRESS HUNT FOR ROA; THREE HELD IN ESCAPE PLOT

Leopold Faces Quiz Today on Poison Charge.

While a search was being conducted in Detroit and Chicago for Bernardo Roa, one of three condemned murderers who broke from the Joliet jail last Saturday, Juanita Gallardo, his sweetheart, was assigned yesterday to a Will county Police court on a charge of aiding and abetting the escape.

Two Other Bonds Reduced. Two more Mexicans, residents of Joliet, who already have been charged with the same offense as Juanita, obtained a reduction of bonds through a writ of habeas corpus. They are Juanita and his daughter, Attilana. They had been held in bonds of $5,000 each. Rather than disclose his evidence against them in a court hearing, State's Attorney Hjalmar Rehn of Will county consented to have the amounts made $1,500.

Another development in the investigation of the escape plot was an announcement by Warden Elmer Green of the Joliet penitentiary that he would question Nathan Leopold today in an effort to determine just what his relations were with the three Mexicans and their three American comrades who were convicted of killing Deputy Warden Peter Klein last spring.

Leopold Named in Poison Charge. Leopold was named yesterday by Leo Delgoda, a former convict, as author of a plot to poison all the guards in the prison and to release 1200 men confined there. Although Warden Green, State's Attorney Rehn, and county officials at Joliet discounted this and declared it was a complete fabrication, they decided to try to learn once more just what Leopold had had to do with the prison break that brought the murder of Klein.

Mr. Rehn scoffed at the possibility that Leopold furnished any money for the jail break of Saturday. So did Warden Green, who pointed out that Leopold had no money except a nominal sum on deposit with which to purchase tobacco and sweets. So did a member of the Leopold family, who said Nathan "never had his reported $3,000 and never would."

WHEATON POLICE CHIEF INDICTED IN DEATH OF GIRL 16; GAMBLING DRIVE HINT JEALOUSY

Chief of Police Charles Sullivan of Wheaton, Ill., and four others were named in true bills returned by the Du Page county grand jury, it was revealed last night, following an intense campaign waged by a number of women's organizations against the open operation of slot machines.

Those besides the police chief reported to have been indicted are: A. L. Hawker, electrical supply dealer; Harlan W. Hildebrand, said to be a former attaché of the internal revenue bureau; and William J. Owens, publisher of Community Topics, a weekly newspaper, all of Wheaton, and Charles Gallott of Elmhurst. Bond was fixed at $2,000 for each man.

Chief Sullivan, Owens, and Gallott were each named in a count charging operation of a gambling device. Hawker and Hildebrand were each named in two counts charging a similar offense. Another count charges Hawker with conspiracy, and another charges Hildebrand with perjury.

Witnesses were taken before the grand jury by State's Attorney Chauncey W. Reed.

PROF. CUPID OF SEA UNIVERSITY TO GRADUATE 24

School Cruise Results in 12 Engagements.

BY HENRY WALES.

(Chicago Tribune Press Service.) (Copyright, 1927, By The Chicago Tribune.) PARIS, March 15.—Little concerned with scholastic affairs or discussions as to whether the trip was a failure or not, 500 students of the floating university on the steamship Ryndam, arrived in Paris tonight, the goal of the voyage for many, and began a series of investigations that would do any college world proud.

Montmartre and Montparnasse are the chief fields of these investigations, although few, very few, of the globe trotting bookworms are reported to be seeing Notre Dame.

Twelve Couples Engaged. Twelve engagements already have resulted from the long days and nights at sea. Former Gov. Allen of Kansas, dean of the school of journalism on the ship, himself admitted the total might reach twelve, but he thought six the best for publication purposes.

"Of course, these are all unofficial, for no announcements have been made whatever."

"I am far from believing this trip a failure or that co-education is a failure," he continued. "What I do believe is that co-education is a useful business, and I understand it will be omitted from two out of three cruises next year. I found no objections in the conduct of the youngsters aboard except that the chances for concentrated twenty-four hour courtship in some cases ruined study, and at other times gave a bad impression ashore."

"Blames 'Few Frivolous Women.' Dean Albert K. Heckel of the University of Missouri, in charge of discipline, admitted that co-education on the high seas is a failure.

"The blame properly belongs to a very few frivolous women members of the party and should be expressed so as not to reflect on the great majority, who are excellent, well behaved folk. Six or seven of the girls should have been sent home."

DENIES A DECISION IN BROWNING CASE; MAY PUNISH WRITER

New York, March 15.—[Special.]—Supreme Court Justice Albert H. F. Seeger, before whom the separation suit of Edward W. Browning against Frances "Peaches" Heenan Browning was tried, issued a denial at White Plains today of rumors that a decision in the case had been prepared by him.

Justice Seeger, it was learned on good authority, has drafted an outline of his decision, but has not completed his final statement.

As a result of the publication of a copyrighted story in the New York American, which purported to be a resume of the contents of Justice Seeger's decision, the latter refused to say today when or where the decision will be filed. His only statement with regard to the story was "It's a lie."

Whether Justice Seeger contemplated any action against Louis W. Fehr, the reporter whose name was signed to the story printed in the American today, could not be learned from him, but it was reported that when he first learned of the story that he considered citing the reporter and other American editorial employees before him to show cause why they should not be punished for contempt of court.

The Jug o' Health

Brook Hill Acidophilus Milk

Brook Hill Acidophilus Milk is a scientific fount of Nature's own aid to health. It is the genuine culture of B. Acidophilus, one of mankind's best friends—the organism which Nature delegates to stamp out intestinal food-decay.

Most adults have, through carelessness in diet, forfeited the defense corps of Acidophilus Bacilli which Nature originally gave them. They are thus open to the ravages of intestinal food-decay and resultant internal poisoning—muscles, nerves and tissues laboring under inordinate handicaps.

Break away from sluggishness—from dull ache and pain! Make a bid for the strength and vigor you once knew! Rid your system of internal poisoning!

Come into Walgreen's today and ask for the Jug o' Health. It contains millions of B. Acidophilus, cultured in Brook Hill certified milk, the medium in which they are best cultivated and best able to perform their natural function—the preservation of vibrant and glowing health.

BY ARTHUR EVANS.

Along the Rialto, betting on the mayoralty race yesterday was reported to show William Hale Thompson is no longer the favorite in the gambling. A week ago, before the Dever campaign opened, Thompsonites were offering bets at 2 to 1. Since Sunday, the Dever campaign has got under such headway that betting is now reported at even money.

At one of the leading emporiums where politicians for years have laid their wagers, it was said that one bet of $20,000 was made yesterday at even money. Another story was told of a group of Thompsonites who offered $10,000 at 2 to 1 on Thompson on Sunday. Two Democrats offered to take $5,000 apiece on Monday. The Thompson agent then said he could place the money only at 6 to 5, and eventually yesterday the Thompsonites refused to bet altogether.

Speakers Get a Rest.
Volsteadism is to be given a large play by the Democratic and independent Republican orators for Dever this week. Yesterday the speechmakers, large and small, rested their throats by the ward battlers and precinct workers and door bell ringers went forth to roll up the registration.

One line the nonpartisan speakers plan to advance deals with Mr. Thompson's record on the wet and dry issue in a fashion similar to that set by Michael L. Igoe, minority floor leader of the legislature, at the Dever opening Monday night. A bulletin yesterday set forth the line of argument.

Thompson's record is of inconsistency," it said. "In fact, when Big Bill is inconsistent he is running true to form. Back in 1915 he signed a pledge to Anton J. Cermak as head of the United Societies for Local Self Government, promising a tolerant and liberal attitude. But soon after he was inducted into office he ignored this pledge and issued his famous Sunday closing order.

POLITICAL NOTES

A school of instruction for volunteer campaign workers in the Sixth ward group of the people's Dever for Mayor committee has been opened in the Hayes hotel, 64th street and University avenue. Mrs. Henry W. Cheney is director.

The Affiliated Shop Employees' council, composed of seven units of railway workers, lined up yesterday in support of M. S. Saymesak, Mayor Dever's running mate for city treasurer. It is headed by Chairman T. M. Jones.

John T. Connerly, president of the Edgewater Beach hotel, made a special trip to Chicago from Biloxi, Miss., yesterday to register. He immediately returned to the golf coast. He said he would make the same trip on election day, April 5.

Lapel badges in the shape of cowboy hats have appeared at Thompson headquarters in the Hotel Sherman. Comment from the Democrats on this was: "There's lots of cow punchers in Chicago, but only one bull tooser."

The municipal ownership Democrats who are with John Dill Robertson issued a statement last night saying the home rule referendum placed on the ballot by the Dever men is a ruse and that Dever in a message in 1924 said under the present act it would be a futile gesture.

Women of the 4th, 7th, 14th, 17th, 18th, and 49 wards have organized Dever precinct clubs. Mrs. Elizabeth Conkey, president of the Dever women's organization, says: "We find that many women of Republican leanings not alone will vote for Mayor Dever but want to do everything they can to assure his reelection."

Consistency," it said. "In fact, when Big Bill is inconsistent he is running true to form. Back in 1915 he signed a pledge to Anton J. Cermak as head of the United Societies for Local Self Government, promising a tolerant and liberal attitude. But soon after he was inducted into office he ignored this pledge and issued his famous Sunday closing order.

Now Is Wet, But Was Dry.
"Now, Big Bill says he is wet as the Atlantic and in a speech said he would open 10,000 places if elected. But only a few months ago, in November, he was working for the election of Anti-Saloon league candidates—Frank L. Smith for Senator, Richard Yates and Henry Rathbone for congressmen, promising a tolerant and liberal attitude. But soon after he was inducted into office he ignored this pledge and issued his famous Sunday closing order.

Yesterday Mr. Thompson was advertised as guest of the City club at its weekly forum, when he was to speak on his platform and issues. It was to be one of a series of talks by the three mayoralty candidates. Mr. Thompson sent his regrets and a substitute speaker.

An attack on Mayor Dever's home rule program was made in a statement put forth by Mr. Thompson. "Dever doesn't stand for home rule," it read. "He wouldn't know what to do with home rule if he had it. He has already imported men for some of the most important positions in the city. For instance, a man from Arizona to tell us where our schools should be located."

First Home Rule Gesture.
"Three legislatures have been in session at Springfield since Dever has been mayor, and now for the first time he is making a gesture at being in favor of home rule over Chicago utilities."

"Since Jan. 1 Dever has been absent from more council meetings than his predecessors, Harrison, Busse, Dunne, and Thompson combined. Dever says we shouldn't have a clown for mayor. I agree. The people will remove him on April 5. And while they are removing the clown from the city hall, they will remove his boss, Brennan. They don't want a pig in the parlor any more than a clown in the city hall."

The Dever group has called a meeting for Monday, when Senator Dever is expected back from Washington to take a stand on the mayoralty. Yesterday Leonard Brundage talked with Mr. Thompson and was reported to have remarked that no invitation has been extended to the Brundage leaders to confer with the Dever-Thompson organization. Another conference is expected.

Dever Reception Tonight.
Norwegian Americans, most of them Republicans, will give Mayor Dever a reception tonight at the Chicago Norse club under the auspices of the Norwegian Nonpartisan Dever league, of which Elias Graff is chairman. Arcadia hall, in the Wilson avenue district, will be the scene of a Thompson mass meeting. Attorney General Oscar Carlstrom is billed as a speaker. Today at 11:30 a. m. the open air and factory upbuilding campaign will be started by the Thompsonites.

Dr. John Dill Robertson, independent candidate, contributed a long statement bearing the title, "John Dill Robertson Will Win." It says propagandists are deceiving the public about the doctor.

De Dill Predicts Victory.
"Not being able to attack John Dill Robertson's private or public life," it says, "the hirelings and mouthpieces of those interests who, from sordid or selfish motives, are opposed to the great principles of people's ownership and the smashing of the underworld crime rings, are attempting to deceive and discourage the honest voters of Chicago by spreading the insidious propaganda that John Dill Robertson can't win."

"This message is issued in order that the decent people of Chicago may not become innocent victims of these lies."

JUDGE REBUKES DRY OFFICIALS; RETURNS ALCOHOL

Federal Judge Adam C. Cliffe yesterday rebuked prohibition officials when he ordered returned to David Lipsey, owner of the Lipsey Tonic Bitters company, 1133 Foster avenue, 20 gallons of alcohol and a truck which were seized by prohibition agents on Dec. 31, 1926.

"These agents had a right to pursue prosecution under the Volstead act, but the defendant should have been formally charged and brought before a United States commissioner," Judge Cliffe said. He added that he believed Lipsey was a bootlegger, but was entitled to constitutional rights.

Prohibition agents on checking up on Lipsey's permit to purchase alcohol for use in making bitters confiscated 100 gallons and the truck. Lipsey's permit to purchase alcohol was revoked on Jan. 2.

PAY TO EXPERTS WAS JUSTIFIED, FAHERTY CLAIMS

Cross-examination of Michael J. Faherty, president of the board of local improvements under the Thompson administration, was continued yesterday at the resumption of testimony in the Tribune's suit to collect $1,700,000 from real estate experts who collected that sum in fees for services on street improvement work.

Attorney Waymouth Kirkland, representing the complainant, contended before Judge Hugo M. Friend that the alleged exorbitant fees—approximately $570,000 each—paid to experts in 1920 were for services rendered during that year alone by the three experts.

Faherty, however, insisted that the money was for the entire work to be done. The fees, he said, were paid on a basis of 1 per cent of the total value of the property appraised and that no specified amount of time was given in which the money paid was to be earned. He asserted the fees were reasonable rewards for the work done.

The witness admitted that the experts had done work for other departments and had also done some outside work while they were working for the city. The heads of other departments, he explained, were as badly in need of the services of some of his men as he was himself and he permitted the experts to help them out.

CAUGHT IN DOUBLY DRY RAID.

County highway police raided a large still and destroyed 6,000 gallons of mash yesterday just before federal agents arrived and arrested James Calabrese, who occupies the premises at 354 Grove street, Blue Island. They turned him over to the federal agents who arrived later in another raid.

Toronto, Ont., March 15.—[U.N.]—Because he published an article in the Christian Enquirer declaring that the God of the Bible "preferred the savory smell of roast cutlets to the odors of boiled cabbage," Ernest V. Sterry has been found guilty of blasphemous libel and faces a sentence to jail under an ancient British statute making it a crime to criticize the Christian God.

A jury convicted Sterry after deliberating only 25 minutes this afternoon. Tomorrow he will be haled before Judge Coatsworth in the sessions to receive his sentence.

"Trying to Libelize Public," Sterry's defense was that he was merely trying to liberalize public opinion and that he thought his article would clear the controversy over the personality of the Deity.

In defending his client Attorney E. L. Cross declared that the Old Testament, on which Sterry's article was based, "is nothing but a collection of myths and legends."

After his article had appeared in the Christian Enquirer, Sterry was arrested on a warrant sworn out by Edward Murphy, the crown prosecutor, who is a devout Roman Catholic. The part of Sterry's article on which the charge was based read as follows:

"The God of the Bible is depicted as one who walked in the Garden of Eden, talked with a woman, cursed a snake, sewed skins together for clothes, preferred the savory smell of roast cutlets to the odors of boiled cabbage, who sat in a burning bush or popped out from behind the rocks."

Says Daily Murdered Thousands. "This irate old party, who thunders imprecations from the mountains, or mutters or gouches in the tabernacle, and whom Moses finds so hard to tame, in his paroxysms of rage has massacred hundreds of thousands of his own people, and would often have slaughtered the whole lot if cunning old Moses hadn't kept reminding him of 'what the Egyptians might say about it.'"

"This touchy Jehovah, whom the deluded superstitionists claim to be the creator of the whole universe, makes one feel utter contempt for the preachers and unforgotten pity for the mental state of those who can retain a serious countenance as they peruse the stories of his peculiar whims, freaks and fancies, and his frenzied megalomaniacal boasts."

Sterry's attorney argued that the charge of blasphemous libel had not been sustained as there was no indecency in the article. In his charge to the jury, however, the judge said:

"Probably nothing is more sacred to us than our religion. We have ever been taught to reverence the name of God. This is so strongly impressed upon our lives that we not only speak but think of God with reverence."

"All that we have in this world worth having, we believe, comes from God. We look to Him also for salvation in the world to come after we have passed out of this life."

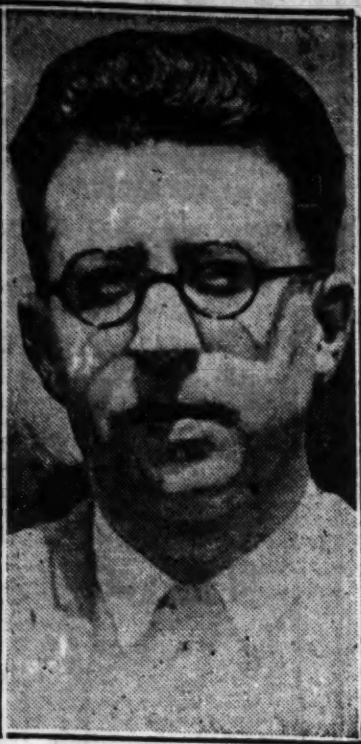

"We look upon the Bible as the basis of every good law in our country. Sooner should we fall with every other book than with the Bible. It is in reality to us the book of books."

RAIDS IN NEGRO DISTRICT CAUSE ROW IN SENATE

Denver, Roberts Discuss
Dever and Thompson.

[BY A STAFF CORRESPONDENT.]

Springfield, Ill., March 15.—[Special.]—Senator John T. Denr, minority leader, poked up the Chicago mayor's contest hornet's nest in the state senate today, and he and Senator Adelbert H. Roberts, colored, of the Third district and a Thompson supporter, cast back and forth vehement and bitter phrases.

Senator Denr produced a letter from Chief of Police Collins answering the resolution Senator Roberts introduced last week asking an inquiry into the Chicago police department, charging that the department was failing to suppress crime and was being used as an instrument of political oppression when it raided the colored wards one Saturday night ten days ago and arrested 1,000 persons.

Reads Chief's Letter. Senator Denr asked that the letter go to the executive committee where the Roberts resolution is pending. Read by the secretary of the senate, the message from the chief of police declared:

"Senator Roberts is misinformed about the work of the police in the colored section of the city of Chicago. The activities displayed by the police after the primaries of Feb. 22 were absolutely necessary. Defiance of the police and challenging their right to arrest became so prevalent immediately after the announcement of the result of the primaries by the hoodlum element of the colored people that the situation had to be handled by drastic measures. We had to give them to understand that they had no more privilege after the primaries than they had before and only enough force was used to bring this about. The law abiding colored citizen appreciates the work we are doing. The other element does not."

"A thorough airing of the situation would open wide the eyes of the people of the city of Chicago when the true conditions are revealed."

Makes Impassioned Reply. Senator Roberts began an impassioned reply, the moment the reading was finished.

"There was no reference to race or color in my resolution," he declared. "This attempt here on the floor of the senate to inject this element into the affair is absolutely unfair unless the purpose of Senator Denr be to make a little political capital."

He demanded that those passages in Chief Collins' letter employing the word "colored" be re-read.

"Senator Denr is playing cheap ward politics," Senator Roberts burst out, "when he tries to get in this message of his. He is slandering the race to which I am tied by blood and suffering."

No Race Riots Under Dever. "You are supporting a candidate," Senator Denr flung back. "We are supporting another. You say your man has done so much for your race. Well, there were no race riots under our candidate, but there was a race riot under yours."

"Mayor Dever for three years and ten months," replied Senator Roberts' retort, "came among the colored people and paid them high tribute as citizens. Never once did he seem to discover, at least he did not disturb, vice conditions in the colored wards, until the day after the primaries when those wards gave his rival such majorities. Why, Dever's men are up and down State street at all the dens and resorts collecting tribute."

Senator Roberts raised his voice still higher. "Morgan Collins has made $100,000 collecting from the vice and gambling resorts," he cried.

COLLINS TO SUE FOR $100,000. After reading of the statement by Senator Roberts accusing him of collecting $100,000 from vice, Chief of Police Collins announced last night that he proposes to enter suit in the Sangamon county courts today for $100,000 damages against Roberts.

"I defy him or any one else to prove that I got even one hundred cents," said the chief.

OBSCURE ORDER BARES AWARD OF WAR MEDAL TO COL. ROOSEVELT

Washington, D. C., March 15.—[U.N.]—An obscure order just issued to army reserves has disclosed the award of the distinguished service medal to Lieut. Col. Theodore Roosevelt for his war services in France.

His willingness to have the medal conferred upon him during his tenure of office as assistant secretary of the navy had up to now been a matter of record.

The order disclosing the decoration gave no explanation as to why the announcement had been withheld, but it was learned that Col. Roosevelt requested the late Secretary Weeks to defer it until such time as Roosevelt should be no longer in the government service.

The fact that the medal itself was still awaiting delivery to Col. Roosevelt came to the attention of Secretary Davis of the war department several weeks ago. He communicated with Col. Roosevelt to arrange a presentation ceremony, but the New Yorker replied that he did not desire any formalities and the medal was sent by mail.

out, "when he tries to get in this message of his. He is slandering the race to which I am tied by blood and suffering."

LACK OF FUNDS HALTS HOSPITAL BUILDING PLANS

Need $700,000 to Start McKinlock Structure.

Due to the lack of funds, plans to start building a new hospital on the McKinlock campus of Northwestern university have been postponed.

A campaign for $1,500,000 conducted last year by the Paskevich Memorial hospital, through its men's board and women's aid society, for a modern hospital plant at Superior street and Fairbanks court was only partially successful and approximately $700,000 is still needed before construction of the building can begin.

"Recent investigation by experts has demonstrated that Chicago is seriously under hospitalized," Russell Tyson, chairman of the board, said yesterday. "The city as a whole possesses only five hospital beds to every 1,000 persons, and the north side has only about three beds to each 1,000. This condition is a menace to the health and welfare of the community."

The district which the proposed hospital would serve, comprising the north side, the loop, and the west side, has about 770,000 people, while the total hospital capacity is only 2,677 beds. Mr. Tyson pointed out. There should be at least three times that number, he said.

In addition to this need, Northwestern university requires a north side hospital near the McKinlock campus for the training of medical and dental students, according to Dean Irving S. Cutter, head of the Northwestern university medical school. Paskevich hospital has agreed to set aside about one-third the 200 beds in the proposed new building where students may obtain practical medical experience at the bedside of the sick and injured. At present the students are sent to other hospitals. "Paskevich's promise north side hospital should be carried out as soon as possible by the people of the north shore community," Dean Cutter said.

U. S. TO PROTEST CHINESE ATTACK ON DESTROYER

Preble Returns Fire of Canton Troops.

BULLETIN.

(Chicago Tribune Press Service.)
SHANGHAI, March 15.—Gen. Pih Shou-tseng, northern commander at Shanghai, was reported to be negotiating with the nationalists regarding terms for the surrender of this city.

BY JOHN POWELL.

(Chicago Tribune Press Service.)
[Copyright: 1927, By The Chicago Tribune.]
SHANGHAI, March 15.—John Van A. MacMurray, United States minister to China, today ordered an investigation of the attack by Cantonese troops on the United States destroyer Preble near Wuhu on the Yangtze river. The United States government is expected to lodge a vigorous protest with the Chinese government.

The Preble had rescued a launch belonging to the Standard Oil company of New York which had been seized by Cantonese soldiers for transport purposes. As the Preble was towing the launch to safety, the soldiers lining the banks of the river fired on it. The Preble was hit three times and returned the fire with machine guns. The incident occurred Sunday.

Nationalists Break Northern Line.
Vernacular papers tonight report the capture of Pengpu, an important strategic point in Anhwei province on the railway leading north to Nanking, by the nationalist forces, forcing Gen. Chang Chung-chang, the Fengtien military commander, to withdraw to Su-chow, in the northern part of Kiangsu province. The capture of Pengpu isolates the northern forces located at Nanking and the Shanghai area, making the early occupation of the Shanghai district by the nationalists a possibility.

Gen. Chu Yu-puh, a subordinate of Gen. Chang Chung-chang, commanding Fengtien forces in Nanking, dispatched a force of 4,000 men south to Changchow, midway between Shanghai and Nanking, to repel a Cantonese thrust, but they were forced to return to Nanking immediately, owing to the attack launched against that city.

The situation at Nanking is not known, but latest reports tonight state that there is fighting in progress within twenty miles of the city.

In addition to the other complications facing the Fengtien forces, all the railway engineers on the Shanghai, Nanking, Hangchow line struck today, causing a complete tieup of railway traffic and paralyzing the troop movements. The strikers declared they refuse to be of further assistance in moving the Fengtien troops.

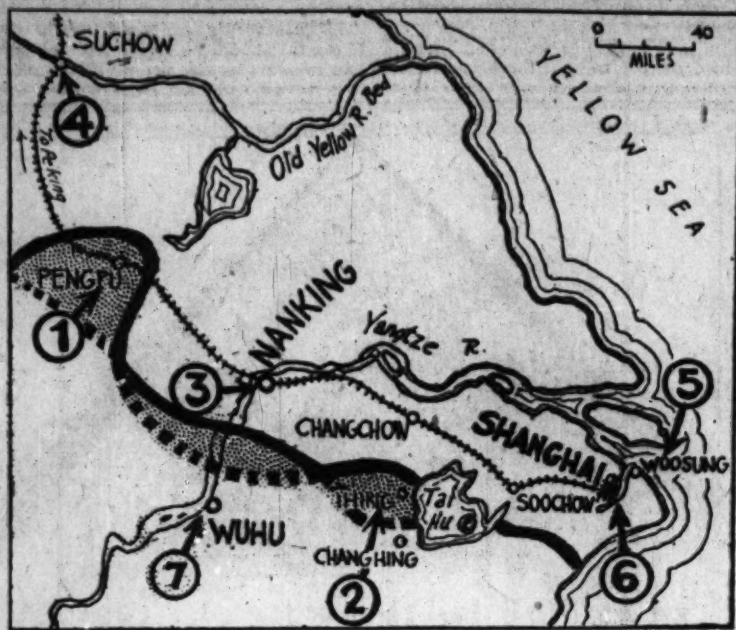

Claim Capture of Thing.
SHANGHAI, March 15.—(P)—Unconfirmed news from the fighting fronts tell of fighting at Thing, which the Cantonese claim to have captured, and near Chengchow, in northern Honan, where the northerners claim a victory.

The Cantonese claims say that Thing, which is a port on the western side of Lake Tai, 100 miles west of Shanghai, fell before them after severe fighting. Capture of Thing would mean a further extension of the Cantonese plan to encircle the important city of Nanking from the south and to cut it off from Shanghai.

The northern victory was claimed at the headquarters of Marshal Chang Tso-lin, Manchurian war lord. It was announced that severe losses had been inflicted on the semi-independent Honan forces of Gen. Chin Yun-ao, forcing them to retreat to Chengchow. The Manchurians now plan to attack the latter city.

Now that the British commercial community, including the chamber of commerce and the China association, has had an opportunity to digest the mass of regulations embodied in the recently concluded Hankow agreement between Great Britain and the Cantonese, they have issued a long memorandum of protest.

The agreement nips the British business men with dismay, because not only does it contain no safeguards but it does not provide any quid pro quo for the virtual surrender of all British rights except extraterritoriality and is looked upon in fact as a capitulation which the Chinese regard as a further sign of weakness.

The British Cigarette company's factory at Hankow has been seized by the Cantonese labor union.

TWO WOMEN, ONE 80 YEARS, DARE AFRICA'S WILDS

CAPE TOWN, South Africa, March 15.—(U. N.)—A return to civilization after three months in the African wilds, during which they traveled unarmed and without white escorts, was made Tuesday by two American women.

They are Mrs. W. D. Cornish of New York, widow of the late vice president of the Union Pacific railway, who will celebrate her 80th birthday Friday, and her cousin, Miss Hooper. Refusing to have their plans disarranged when arrangements for a white escort failed, Nov. 12, they left Naples alone on a motor trip which was to take them through 4,000 miles of interior Africa. The story of their adventures was related in Johannesburg when they arrived there.

Lion Shot Near Camp.

Wild beasts, jungle lands and strange native tribesmen of Africa all served to inject interest into the trip for the aged Mrs. Cornish and her companion. At Rijat Dec. 14 they camped all night near a native road gang. One of the preliminary thrills of the trip came that night when a man eating lion approached the natives. A shot rang out and the two women, who had been apprised of the danger near by, learned the beast had been killed.

Plunging into central Africa, the daring Americans lost their way after passing through Nairobi, and as they were anxious to get back on the main road they drove their automobile all night. The reserve car broke down and this forced them to camp out in the wilds.

HAITIANS PLAN TO RECEIVE KING DESPITE BAN

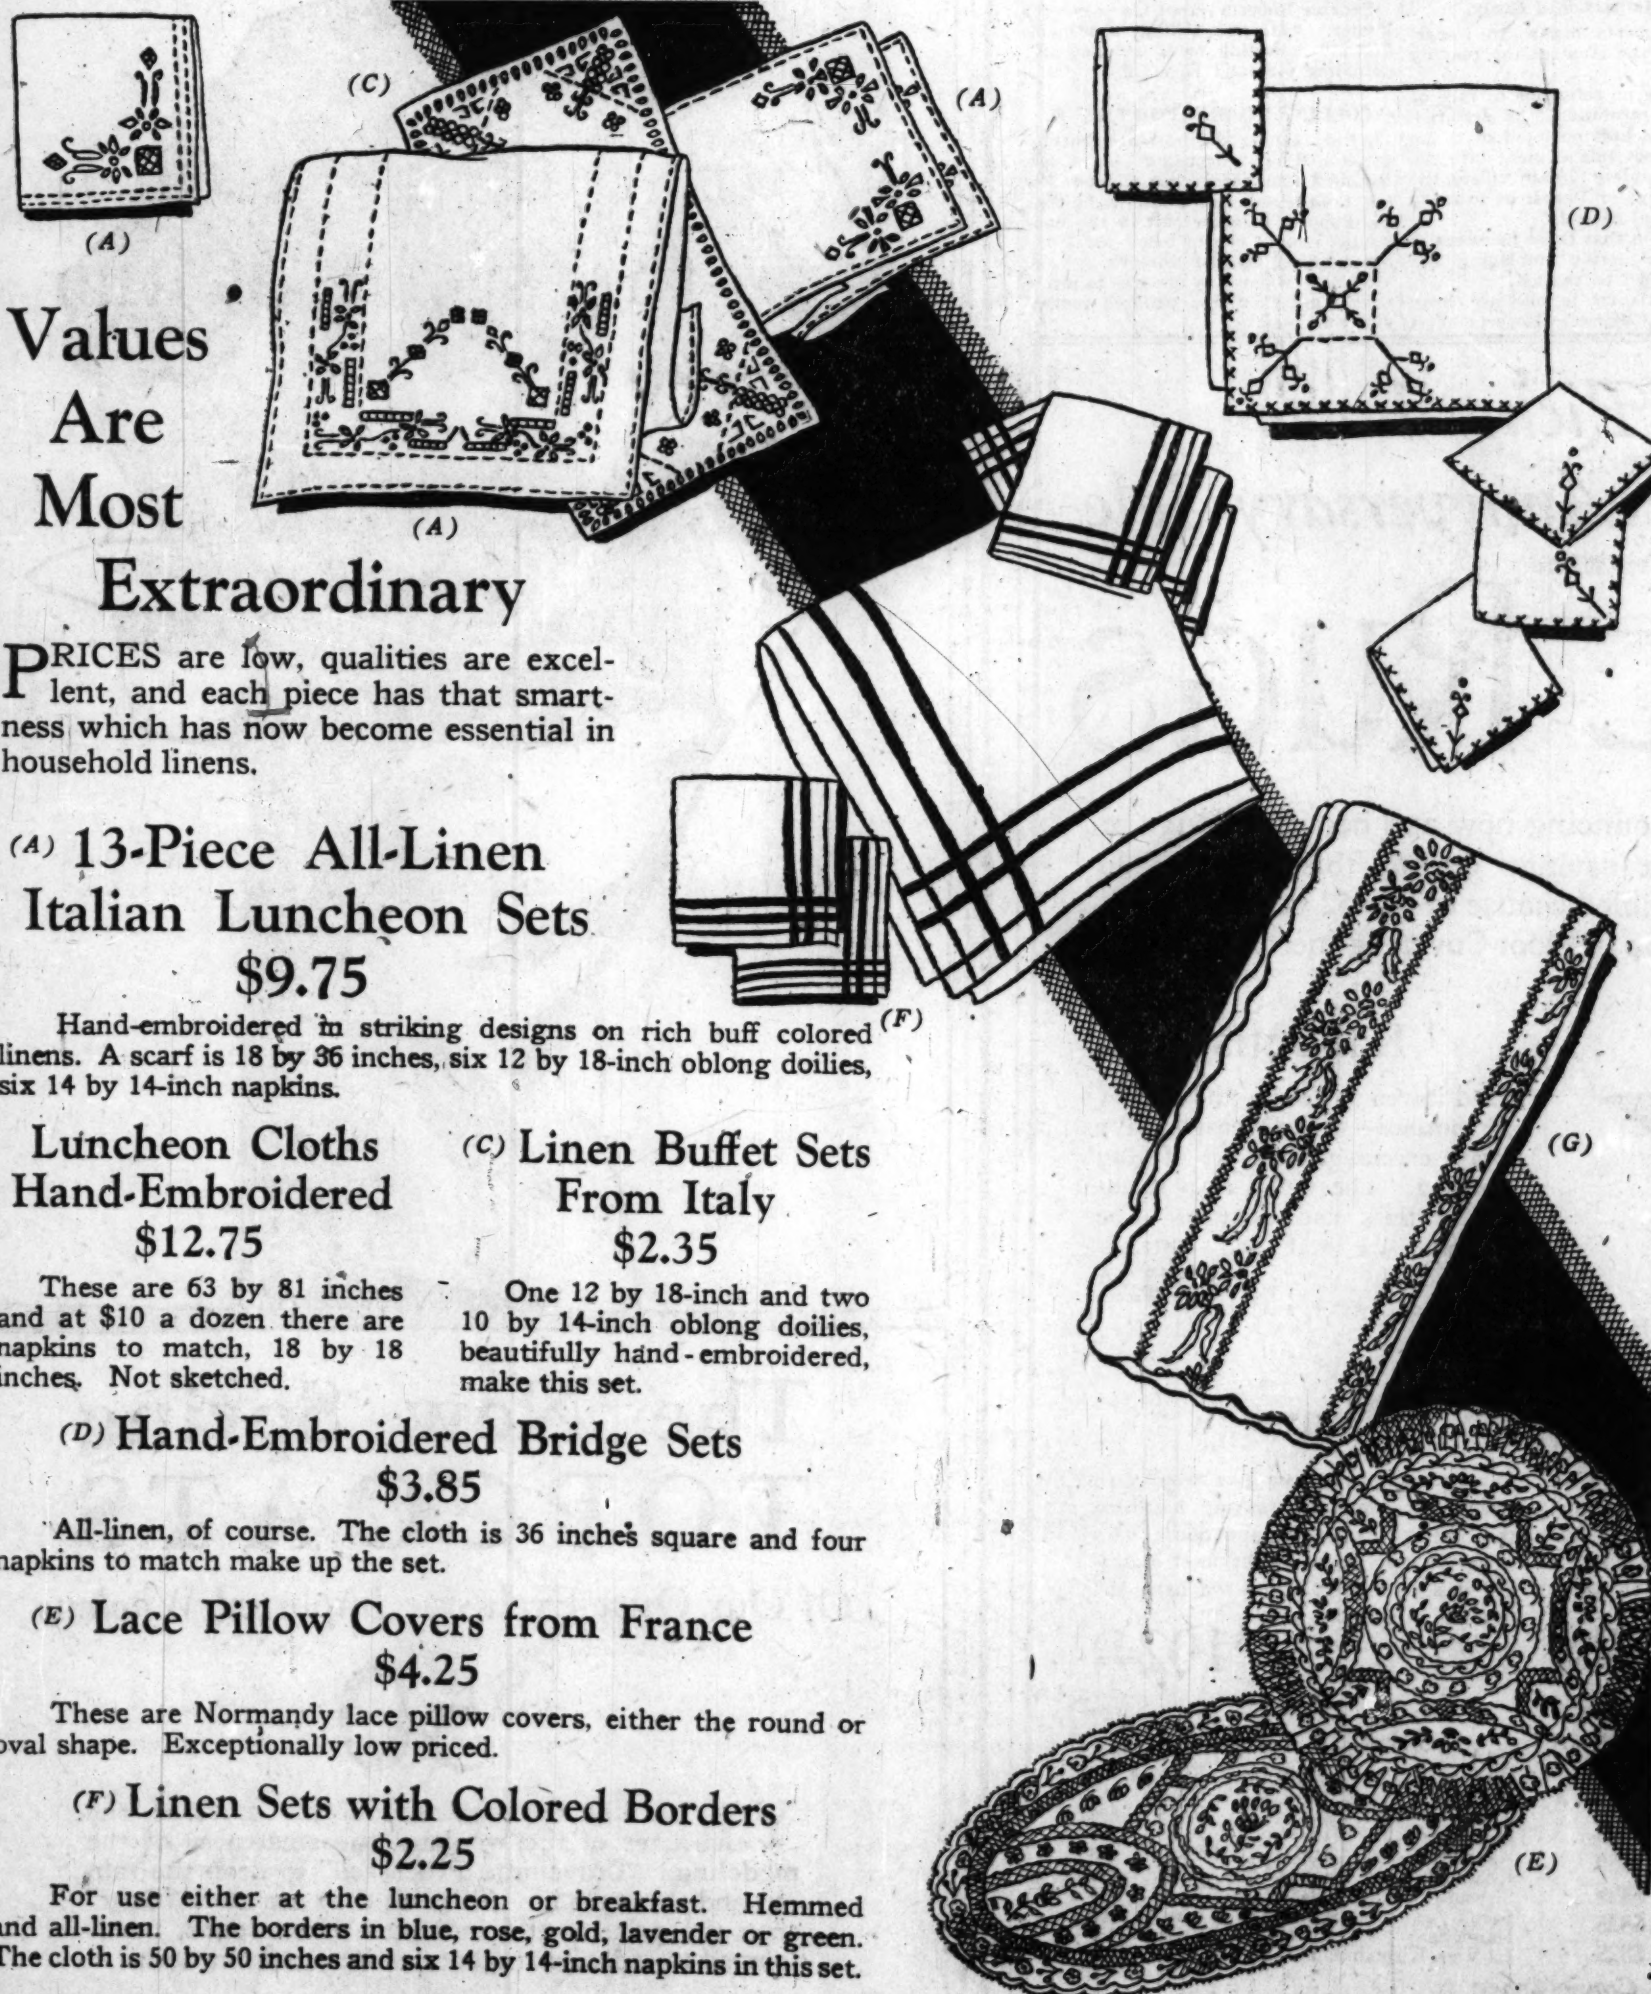

SANTO DOMINGO, Dominican Republic, March 15.—(P)—The Haitian public is continuing its preparation to receive United States Senator King of Utah, says a message received here today from Percival Thoby and M. J. L. L. at Port au Prince, leaders of the opposition to President Borno. The message was received by the two Haitian deputies, Pierre Hudecourt and Pierre Paul, who arrived here today to await the arrival of Senator King. The senator's criticism of the United States policy in Haiti has led to the decision of the Haitian government to exclude him from the country. He insists he intends to go there, however.

1,000,000 LIBEL SUIT TO SEE FORD TESTIFY MONDAY

to Hear Sapiro Case.

Detroit, Mich., March 15.—(AP)—Henry Ford will take the witness stand Monday in the $1,000,000 libel suit filed against him by Aaron Sapiro of Chicago, organizer of cooperative marketing associations, who claims his reputation was injured by a publication appearing in Ford's publication, the Dearborn Independent.

This was decided at a conference of counsel for both sides today after Ford had been sworn in before Judge Raymond of the United States district court.

Ford will appear as a witness for the plaintiff, counsel for the plaintiff who subpoenaed him, have announced. The manufacturer will be in the unique position of testifying against himself, but will benefit by the federal court rule which prohibits counsel impeaching the testimony of his own witnesses.

All Eager to Serve.
Six women and six men were chosen to sit as jurors in what promises to be a long drawn out trial. No bids were forthcoming as to business duties, illness in the family or prejudices. It was obvious all wished to serve.

Carefully the white haired senator from Missouri, James A. Reed, appearing for Ford, questioned the venues to bring out possibilities of prejudice, religion, or unfavorable personal alliances.

One man was excused after he informed the court he had been a member of the Ku Klux Klan, although he had never been active, and two members of the Jewish race were excused.

William Henry Gallagher, attorney for Sapiro, in his opening plea declared the right of free speech was open to all, but when a publication injured the character and reputation of an individual, it was to be regarded as a menace.

Admits Right to Attack.
"Henry Ford has the right to attack the Jewish people as a race without exposing himself to libel," Attorney Gallagher said in his opening plea, "but when he makes an individual the target for his attacks he makes himself subject to discipline."

Mr. Gallagher described the Dearborn Independent as a "peculiar" publication, carrying no advertising and supported entirely by Mr. Ford. The publication was merely the creature of Henry Ford, he said, his mouthpiece and spokesman.

"The Dearborn Independent has a yearly deficit of $250,000 to $300,000 a year," said the attorney. "We expect to show that Mr. Ford makes it up, and that the Dearborn Independent owes the Ford company at least $2,000,000."

He pictured Aaron Sapiro as a man who had risen in spite of difficulties. Born in 1884 in San Francisco, he spent the early years of his life in an orphanage following the death of his father.

Sapiro claims that the series of articles in the Dearborn Independent in 1924-25 charged that he was a member of a Jewish conspiracy to exploit agriculture and spread communism throughout the country. This, he al-

G. O. P. TO FIGHT SMITH TO FINISH ON WATER POWER

Albany, N. Y., March 15.—[Special.]—The Republican leaders decided today to fight Gov. Smith on the issue of water power.

They determined to resist both his plan for a state power authority and his alternative proposal for a referendum on the question of his proposal and armed for a fight that promises to illuminate the windup of a dull session.

Following a conference today the G. O. P. prepared to take the offensive. The senate finance committee will report out tomorrow the bill of Senator Hewitt creating a nonpartisan commission to study the whole question.

Meanwhile, the assembly majority is ready with its duplicate of the Hewitt bill, a measure introduced by Assemblyman Sargent of Syracuse. The lower house will pass, early next week, either Mr. Sargent's composition or Mr. Hewitt's, whichever comes before it first.

Opponents of Smith charge that his plans do not take into proper consideration the rights of other states and the federal government in the development of St. Lawrence power and amount to an attempt to "hog water power" for New York state.

Decorative Furnishings from Italy

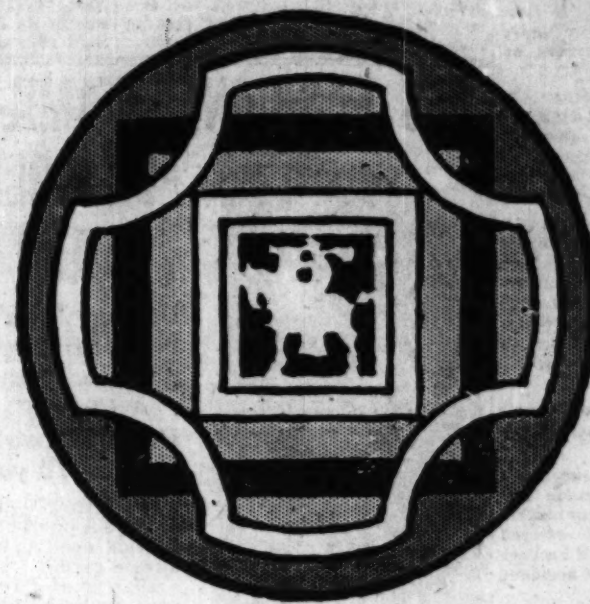

ON recent trips abroad Colby buyers have been very fortunate in securing good examples of the arts of Southern Europe.

Many exceptional pieces, both antique and modern, have arrived and are now shown in the Colby collection. Included are chairs and benches, carved and painted credenzas, inlaid commodes, hangings of brocade and tapestry, mirrors and paintings, Florentine carved frames and wrought ironwork.

Seekers after distinction in furnishing will do well to see the Colby displays. Our decorating department will be glad to discuss, without obligation, the use of these furnishings in your home.

BRITISH START A "HOLLYWOOD" TO ROUT U. S. FILMS

Artists Join $5,000,000 Producing Project.

BY DAVID DARRAH.

(Chicago Tribune Press Service.)
LONDON, March 15.—A smashing blow at the American world film monopoly was revealed tonight with the announcement of a £1,000,000 ($5,000,000) empire-wide venture for the establishment of a British "Hollywood" with huge central studios near London. Leading British authors, artists, theatrical producers and actors are associated in the project.

They include the following authors: Sir Hall Caine, Sir Arthur Conan Doyle, Arnold Bennett, John Galsworthy, Edith Sitwell, Thomas Burke, and Rafael Sabatini; the following artists: Frank Brangwyn, Mme. Karsavina, Edmund Dulac, Isidore de Lara, and Sir Charles O'Sullivan; and the following stage people: Sybil Thorndike, Sir Gerald Du Maurier, Phyllis Neilson Terry, Oscar Asche and Gordon Craig.

Stories by Best Authors.
A five year option on the film rights of the stories of fourteen of the best known British novelists and contracts for the sale of the world rights of the first three productions to a "powerful American company," already have been arranged.

The new organization is styled "British Incorporated Pictures, Ltd." Affiliated producing companies will operate in Canada, Australia, South Africa and India. The syndicate is backed by big interests, who are said to have been working on the scheme for twelve months.

Italy Protects Movie Industry.
(Chicago Tribune Press Service.)
ROME, March 15.—Under the terms of a law approved by the council of ministers for presentation to parliament, the Fascist government will begin a campaign for the protection of the Italian film industry.

So great is the predominance of American movies in Italy that the producers complain that they are unable to meet expenses, but with government assistance they feel that they can make a definite bid for the leadership they once held.

Henceforth, under the terms of the new law, one film in every ten shown in each Italian movie theater must be a national product.

FOURTH RUNAWAY GIRL FINDS HOME BEATS OPEN ROAD

Glad to Be Back with Wealthy Parents.

New York, March 15.—(P)—Youth's dream that the hills are always greener far away was a memory tonight. Instead of a hopeful vision for four young girls, all back once more under parental care after brief careers on "the open road."

The latest to return was Mary Cabell, 15, daughter of Hartwell Cabell, wealthy New York attorney. She was found yesterday in an ice cream parlor at Lake George, discussing life and wanderlust with two young women acquaintances.

Snuggling against the broad chest of her gray haired father, who rushed to Hudson Falls in his car this morning to bring her back to the family home and the duties of the Spence school here, Miss Cabell showed no reluctance over the prospects of returning.

Craved Change; Just "Had to Leave."
"I was all tired out in New York," she said.

Still dressed in the newly purchased mourning costume which made her presence in Lake George recognizable to a hotel clerk, Miss Cabell referred to the recent death of her half brother, who was killed in a airplane accident in Texas.

"You know how it is when you just have to leave—to get a change—to get away from everything," she explained.

"You just go."
With her father, the young woman boarded the New York bound train at Schenectady, and, to escape the questions of an expectant group of newspaper men, the two left the train at Yonkers.

Spring Calls Three Others.
Miss Cabell, who told her father of her wanderings for five days among the little Adirondack towns, succumbed to the call of spring a little later in the season than Miss Kasia Mahoney, also in her fifteenth year, and a judge's daughter. Miss Mahoney disappeared on Feb. 21, and was not located until the 25th, when she walked into the police station at Cohoes, north of Albany, and asked for food.

Virginia Pease, 17 year old high school girl of Syracuse, and Miss Mary Carr, Buffalo, also felt the call of spring wanderlust earlier in the season, and after several days visiting about returned home.

Prince Scipione Borghese, One of Ancient Family Dies
(Copyright, 1927, by The New York Times.)
ROME, March 15.—Prince Scipione Borghese, head of one of the most ancient and noblest of the Roman princely families, is dead at Florence as the age of 58. He leaves no male issue, therefore his branch of the family is now extinct. The title will pass to his brother, Prince Livio Borghese. Prince Borghese, with Luigi Barnini, now editor of an Italian newspaper in New York, was winner of the famous Peking to Paris automobile race more than 20 years ago.

WORKMEN WORK; COOLIDGE GETS OUT FROM UNDER

Washington, D. C., March 15.—(P)—Workmen who are taking the roof off the White House forced President Coolidge to scurry for safety today as they continued hoisting lumber over his head while he was inspecting the work. The President was standing under the big crane in front of the house at noon when he suddenly discovered a pile of lumber was being lifted directly above him. Without waiting for the warning of secret service men, Mr. Coolidge beat a hasty retreat to a safe spot.

PETER PAN PRINTS

Paris Launches the Vogue For Cottons, and Many Most Charming New Colors and Designs Are

Presented in This Display And Featured Selling 38c to 55c Yard

QUAINT sprigged fabrics reminiscent of "book muslin," brilliant printings modernistic in theme both as to pattern and color tone, and between these two extremes practically every type of printing, old-fashioned and new. Surely Peter Pan Prints show the way to real distinction of fashion in a season when prints are everywhere.

At 55c Yard, Peter Pan Prints As Whimsical as the Spritely Little Person Who Lends Them His Name

At 38c, Wendy prints, sheer batiste of white with most colorful printings. At 38c, too, is a checkered lawn printed over in tiny patterns.

At 50c, Asprey printing, roses and field flowers sprinkled over a white or colored ground.

At 50c, Naña prints, a plain smooth cloth, highly mercerized, is printed over with a brilliant effect.

At 48c yard, corded dimities—winsome fabrics in which one vision appealing little frocks.

There's great satisfaction in knowing that their beauty of coloring is permanent, for Peter Pan Prints do not fade either in wearing or in washing.

Second Floor, North.

Model Frocks On Display

Made up with the use of Pictorial Review and Vogue patterns.

Aprons

NOTHING could be better suited than these fabrics for the making of wee folks' pinafores, garden aprons, even utility aprons.

WOMAN'S 8 HOUR BILL FOES HEARD IN LEGISLATURE

Commerce Bodies and Small Towns Object.

Springfield, Ill., March 15.—(Special.)—The opponents of the woman's eight hour bill had their day before the joint industrial affairs committee of the state senate and house today and they listed their objections substantially as follows:

Women workers do not want the bill. It will cut their pay and cost them Saturday afternoon holidays. It increases the difficulties of women's competition with men.

It will necessitate an increase in prices.

It will drive industries out of the state and bring in foreign goods.

It is unconstitutionally paternalistic.

With a large delegation gathered in the galleries, and three score speakers ready to deliver their testimony, the case against the bill went on. On the sidelines sat John M. Glenn, secretary of the Illinois Manufacturers' Association, chief opponent, although he did not himself take the stand.

Head Case of Town Stores.

R. C. Bennett, representing the Illinois chamber of commerce, the Sangamon Electric company, and the Illinois Watch company, spoke for his companies and "in behalf of retail merchants in smaller towns."

"They employ girls, often members of their families," he said. "The work is light yet the stores must keep open during evening to accommodate the rural trade."

The bill limits the hours of work for women employed to eight hours a day, or forty-eight hours a week. The clothing industry is excepted from May 1 to Oct. 15.

"That is unfair," charged Miss Elizabeth Winter, a forewoman for R. R. Donnelly & Co. of Chicago. "The industry exists that has no seasonal phase, yet you recognize only one. You would take away our Saturday afternoons. If women prefer to work nine hours a day for five days, and a half day a week, whose business is it? Our company has to call on its employees to work overtime when a new phone directory is to be got out."

"Fighting for Her Job."

"If I can fill a man's place, and I can, I want an equal right to do it. I'm fighting for my job."

The proceedings were enlivened by the questions of Representative Thomas O'Grady of Chicago, a member of the committee. He undertook to question John Dougherty, representing the Chicago Laundry Owners' association.

A chorus of "Sit down!" from the gallery caused Mr. O'Grady to reply: "O, you don't bother me. John M. Glenn paid your way down here just so you could applaud."

FIVE STATES JOIN U. S. IN CAMPAIGN AGAINST BORER

Washington, D. C., March 15.—(Special.)—Five states—New York, Pennsylvania, Ohio, Michigan and Indiana—are cooperating with the department of agriculture in the $10,000,000 campaign begun yesterday to delay the spread of the European corn borer into the corn belt. It was announced today.

The area now infested comprising about 60,000,000 acres, is largely within these five states, where the federal appropriation will be used to compensate farmers for expenditures in connection with the sweeping farm cleanup campaign.

To prevent the spread of the borer into Illinois, Iowa and other corn belt states, it is proposed to gather up and burn or plow underground all of the corn stalks in the infested areas.

OUR FOREIGN REPRESENTATION

The New York World, being displeased with the state department's conduct of recent problems, has sought an explanation through inquiry into the preparedness of our diplomats for the particular jobs they are dealing with. Examining the register, it finds that our representatives in charge of the Mexican case have no adequate background of personal knowledge or experience of Mexico. Says the World:

"The equipment of the department of state, so far as experience with Mexico goes, may be summed up quite briefly. Twenty-one years ago the under secretary of state was in Mexico for one year. Eight years ago the economic adviser was in Mexico for one year as a technical employee of the Mexican government. For the rest, Mr. Coolidge and Mr. Kellogg depend upon the advice of a series of officials not one of whom has first hand knowledge of modern Mexico.

"How, then, about the staff of the embassy in Mexico City? The ambassador, Mr. Sheffield, was appointed Sept. 9, 1924. He had no previous experience in Mexico, or in any other diplomatic post for that matter. The counselor, H. P. A. Schoenfeld, was appointed March 5, 1924. He had had no previous experience in Mexico, but he had held posts in Venezuela, Paraguay, Uruguay, Bolivia, Brazil. The first secretary, Arthur Bliss Lane, was appointed July 2, 1925. He had had no previous Mexican experience, or even Latin-American experience. The second secretary is H. Dorsey Newson, appointed Jan. 24, 1924. No previous experience. The third secretary is Stuart P. Grummon, appointed Feb. 5, 1924. No previous experience. The commercial attaché is George Wythe. The register does not show any previous experience in Mexico. The equipment of the embassy consists, therefore, of officials none of whom has had more than three years' experience in Mexico, not one of whom can be said to have known Mexico before the present oil and other controversies became acute."

We do not recall that the World protested when Mr. Wilson selected John Lind, former Democratic governor of Minnesota, to go to Mexico in an especially critical juncture as a special adviser. Mr. Lind was an amiable man and had issued a good governor, but he had not the least of the special knowledge for lack of which among his advisers the World is so eager to discredit Mr. Kellogg.

The trouble with the state department is not at Mr. Kellogg's door any more, at any rate, than at that of his predecessors. There may be a conspiracy to give Harvard men jobs instead of Yale or Princeton men, but that would be easy to expose and correct. The trouble is one from which all bureaucracies suffer—namely, the assumption that the diplomatic and consular service exists to a considerable degree for its membership. Its personnel is moved and distributed not as a private corporation compelled to produce results, but on an intradepartmental line which apparently considers special fitness as a secondary matter. To illustrate. A certain consular officer recently accomplished a quite remarkable piece of work. It was the result of years of study in a certain field and of special fitness both of mental equipment and preparation. When it was done this officer, instead of being rewarded by promotion or at least by an opportunity to do more service of the kind, as he would certainly have been in a private enterprise, was sent to an obscure post where his abilities could be utilized only at rare intervals if at all. The explanation for this disposition of an asset of the department was that this official had had a soft snap and ought to serve in a less desirable place for a while. The soft snap meant living in a large city instead of a small inland town.

In other words, the department was not after a maximum of efficiency in the handling of our relations, but was distributing favors in the service. To illustrate again. There is an American consul at a certain remote post in the far east. He has been there several years. He was born in the northeast of American parents, knows the chief language of the region and French, the other important official language besides English, and asked for service in the Levant. So he was sent to Japan, spent more time learning Japanese, and is now at the post referred to. A young man we know is now studying for the service, with already a knowledge of far eastern tongues and conditions. When the hope is expressed that he will be sent to the far east, some veterans' comment is significant. They laugh and predict that he will be sent to South Africa or South America.

There are other weaknesses in our diplomatic and consular organization and management. There are too many snobs in the diplomatic service, men of private means who revel in the social prestige of diplomatic office and quickly become exasperated with an inferiority complex, so far as national feeling is concerned, and a passion for conciliating the aristocratic societies in which they hope to be accepted. The consular service is relatively free from this nuisance, and it has also a solid foundation of knowledge of the practical interests with which our foreign relations are in the main concerned. We are far from detracting from the intelligent and devoted service of these men and of such of the diplomatic service as are of the same fitness. But with our rapidly expanding international relations, we are convinced that some drastic improvements are needed in the state department. We ought to evolve our own system of foreign representation, which should be founded not upon European traditions but on the realities of our own foreign interests and upon principles of efficiency. That is no easy task, for it calls for drastic reforms and for better provision for upkeep than congress is readily disposed to make. But it would pay well.

NONPARTISAN EXPERT TESTIMONY.

The Illinois Medical society's measure to put expert testimony in criminal cases on a non-partisan basis ought to receive consideration by the present legislature. The existing method by which each side hires expert opinion is a continuing source of contempt for law and for medical science. A member of the committee which has drawn the bill frankly states the public's inference when one set of experts paid by the prosecution comes to a conclusion desired by the prosecution and paid for by the state, and another comes to a contrary conclusion desired by the defense and paid for by it. The inference is that expert testimony takes the color of the money paid for it; that an expert can be got to testify one way or the other according to his hire.

We do not think this inference is altogether or always fair. Insanity is a broad and difficult field, and honest as well as expert opinion may differ on a given case. But there is too much reason to suspect venality in many instances, and there can be no question that the public is coming to believe that all insanity experts are venal. This, as we have said, is demoralizing, weakening public confidence in the processes of justice and in the honor of science.

We think it may be impossible constitutionally to deprive a defendant of the right of hiring and presenting expert opinion. It may be dangerous and undesirable to deprive him of it, even if it can be done constitutionally. But this is not conclusive against the proposed measure. Even if it were impossible constitutionally to prohibit the defense from presenting other expert testimony, we think the nonpartisan experts' conclusions would outweigh that of the paid witnesses, and the right of presenting such evidence would tend to lapse in practice.

The plan of the medical society's bill seems to us worthy of trial. Under it the court would appoint three experts, who would examine the defendant separately and make separate reports. The appointments would be made from a list of eligible alienists, one appointee to be recommended by the state, one by the defense, and one to be chosen by the judge.

At all events, a well considered attempt to get rid of the present demoralizing situation should be made without more delay. New York and another state or states already are trying the non-partisan plan, and we believe it is working well.

SENATOR KING AND THE SOVEREIGNTY OF HAITI.

Senator William H. King of Utah intended to make a visit to Haiti. The American state department is informed by the Haitian minister, Hannibal Price, that the Haitian foreign department regards Senator King as undesirable and therefore he will not be permitted to land. The senator has been critical of American administration in the republic and President Borno believes it would be dangerous to have him in the country. Also the senator has said uncompromising things of the president.

Senator King, being critical, has demanded that the American marines be withdrawn from Haiti. President Borno knows that the day after the marines went out his head would be on a stake. His regard for Senator King has this personal quality which does not always get into international relations.

The marines were sent into Haiti to stop government by assassination. Assassination is probably too pale a word. It was by butchery. The slaying of political prisoners had made Haitian politics even more sanguinary than usual for Caribbean campaigning.

Mr. Borno even now when he takes the air feels a greater repose if there is a marine not more than six feet from him. In a most particular sense Senator King would be persona non grata to him. Even Mr. King may find a minor gratification in the incident. He has been critical of American administration because it was extinguishing Haitian sovereignty, liberties, and rights. Enough sovereignty has been retained for the president of Haiti to tell a United States senator to keep out of the country. The American state department says that if that is President Borno's state of mind there does not seem to be anything to do about it but to permit him to have his way. Possibly the state department is not taking the matter to heart as it should.

Editorial of the Day

JUSTICE HOLMES IS.

(The Rocky Mountain News (Denver, Colo.))

Today the country has reason to be pleased by the kindly manner in which time has dealt with one member of its United States Supreme court, Oliver Wendell Holmes. Mr. Justice Holmes became 86 years young Tuesday.

It is not an empty compliment to the word young as used. The mind which still sees clearly, remembers accurately, reasons astutely, and retains sympathy for fellow men and women is still young. Such is the mind of Mr. Justice Holmes. If you doubt, read on a Monday the decisions handed down. Perhaps—quite likely in fact—there will be a dissenting opinion by Justice Holmes, in which Brandeis joins. Or a dissent by Brandeis in which Holmes joins. And that is the real thinking of the court; and the real speaking. In a decade or so, it will be like other dissents, the majority opinion of the court.

Holmes has shown more youth and courage of mind than most of his colleagues who boast fewer years. He likes to be called Colonel Holmes. As who would not who had been shot through the chest at the battle of Ball's Bluff back in the early '60s, and who had been shot through the neck at Antietam, and through the foot at Mays Heights, and had been everything military from a first lieutenant of Massachusetts volunteers to aid de camp to a general!

He might be called by some title indicating authorship. He has published a shelf full of law books, things like the twelfth edition of Kents Commentaries, early English equity, and so on. And he has degrees from all the fresh water colleges like Amherst and Williams, as well as from Harvard, where he taught in the school of law.

He served on the Supreme bench of Massachusetts before Roosevelt appointed him to his present place. Once in a while he seems to forget that he is Mr. Justice and talks in a way to recall the memory of the poet who was his father. As an address on law: "No man has earned the right to intellectual ambition until he has learned to lay his course by the star which he has never seen to dig by the divining rod for springs which he may never reach."

Let us hope! Hope that Mr. Justice Holmes is spared until such time as we may feel certain the successor named by the President will be not his equal perhaps, but of the same breed.

SOURCES OF BOTULISM.

Mc. writes: Will you please write something about botulism. Can one get it from bottled fruit juices, or those put up in jars, or from olives?

REPLY. Yesterday I heard a man telling about drinking a famous whisky concoction called "a stinger." The saloon serving this concoction was next to a theater. He had two drinks of this "stinger" between acts. When he returned to the theater he saw two stages, two leading ladies and two performances. Every-thing was doubled except the price of admission.

One of the first symptoms of botulism is seeing double. A man just coming down with it might think he had swallowed two "stingers." Among the symptoms which follow are: weakness, vertigo, unconsciousness, apparent paralysis.

When we think of food poisoning, we think of nausea, vomiting and purging. A man with botulism may vomit, but the chances are strong that he will not. The chances are also strong that there will be no stomach or intestinal symptoms.

When we think of food poisoning we think of a sudden attack coming on while eating, or shortly thereafter. In botulism, symptoms rarely develop until the next day, and they may not come until the day after.

Things which contain botulism poison, and no other bacterial product, should look, taste, and smell all right. When the looks, taste, and smell of the food are very bad the probability is that other bacteria have worked on it even though botulism poison is present. Likewise, in spoiled food which causes nausea in a short while, other bacteria, either with or without botulism, have been at work there.

Experience has shown that the botulism bacillus cannot grow in dry places from which air is excluded. I doubt if botulism bacillus ever grows in fluid in a jar; too much acid. I presume all fruit juices contain too much acid for botulism since this bacillus does not prosper in acid mixtures.

The origin of the present wave of excitement about botulism was caused by botulism in ripe olives. I have not heard of any cases of olive botulism for several years. In an outbreak of FRIENDLY BENEFIT. Chicago, March 15.—[To the Legal Friend of the People.]—Is it possible for a married man to take out insurance for another woman? 2. Is it payable without possible interference of wife or family, even though it be proved that they have been sweethearts of long standing? M. A. B.

1. Yes, it is possible. 2. The bare facts that you state would invalidate it, but if the insurance is part of an illegal transaction, it might be tainted with the illegality. In such circumstances we advise you either to submit all of the facts to the insurance company or over all of the facts in a personal interview with an attorney.

TRIBUTE LAW DEPARTMENT. MUST BE ASSESSED TO PAY. Chicago, March 15.—[Friend of the People.]—The street in the 4700 block of Chicago, where a man was killed, is in very bad condition. Occupants of homes are unable to get coal delivered or get their cars out in winter or rainy weather. Could ashes be dumped and spread there, and could you say when the street will be paved? J. E. M.

Lavergne avenue from Lawrence to Avenue C is in a terrible state. The killing has been put in from time to time and the grade will not permit further filling. The only reason for present conditions is the paving of the street by special assessment. THOMAS H. BYRNE, Superintendent of Streets.

WHO THREW THAT BRICK? Chicago, March 15.—[Friend of the People.]—When a building was wrecked recently at Spaulding avenue and 19th street, bricks were left scattered over the sidewalk, making them almost impassable. The lot has been excavated and no railing placed about it, making it exceedingly dangerous. H. R.

Efforts are being made to locate owner of bricks in order to serve notice for removal of same. If the owner is not located, the sidewalk will be closed. Notice will also be served to get railing or fence around excavation in order to prevent accidents. THOMAS H. BYRNE, Superintendent of Streets.

WASHINGTON.—The Richmond Dispatch says that the federal government will have a larger disposable force than the confederates, who must retain 200,000 men to guard Maryland and Washington, 100,000 to hold Kentucky and Maryland, 20,000 in forts and 80,000 in the field, leaving a disposable force of only 200,000 for invasion.

WASHINGTON.—Gen. Wadsworth became military governor and provost marshal of the District of Columbia. There will be no more slave catching here.

WASHINGTON.—The steamer Yankee arrived at the navy yard and took on a quantity of shells. Then with the Anacostia it shelled the rebel batteries at Aquia Creek. The enemy replied briskly, but did no damage to the Yankee, although they made several excellent shots. The heavy guns of the Yankee enabled her to drop shells with precision into the batteries. After the ships drew off it is thought the rebels began moving their stores and ammunition from Aquia Creek.

HICKMAN, Ky.—The naval expedition under Flag Officer Foote which left Cairo this morning now lies here. There are eight gunboats, eight mortar boats and transports. YOUTH.

Say in what hour shall youth be ever still.
And of what hope for youth is peace in spring,
I stood upon the brow of every hill,
And in my mind I leap the trees and sing.

Say how can hours repeat their loveliness
Though punctual to the end of endless time,
Spring shall not leap upon the sky in such a dress
In any other year or other clime.

Beneath my feet the pushing of the sod,
The aching of all roots to be above,
Ascends along my veins and up to God
I stretch my arms and ache with heaven-love.

Say how can youth be other than I...
Peace cannot be when spring leans on the sky!

THE TRIB said yesterday that the Philippine school where the principal was ducked by the students because he wouldn't let 'em wear pants was not a co-educational institution. What the constitution says is that the right to bare arms shall not be infringed. Not the right to bare legs.

NEW YORK DISCOVERS SNOWSHOE AL.

R. H. Now, mind you! Out here we have followed his writings for five or six years, have loved him like the west and middle west by warm, have stood in line an hour to buy his books, have heard his name mentioned in miners' cabins, bunk houses, millionaires' homes, palatial hotels, and all other places where people live and talk, and now dear old Father Knickerbocker has found new humorists. To use the language of the immortal Shakespeare, "AINT THAT HOT?" Some day New York is going to discover a place called Chicago; she is going to locate a brand new paper called The Chicago Daily Tribune; she is going to hear of the Line! THE NEW BOARD OF TRADE.

Chicago, March 14.—The city is spending millions of dollars straightening the river that railway terminals and tracks may be moved in order to open up a number of downtown streets to the south side. This will doubtless mean that before many decades the La Salle street station, as well as the Grand Central and Dearborn street terminals, will be consolidated at a point which will not be in the way of traffic between the sections of the city.

This would ordinarily open up La Salle street through to the south side, which is certainly to be desired, as efforts are being made to get a bridge across the main branch connecting the north and central sections of this street.

Now comes the plan of the Board of Trade to replace their building by another on the same site, effectively blocking this street to the south, at least as a convenient artery, for jogs such as are necessary in this case always cause congestion. Why could not this new building be placed on the south side of Jackson, running from Clark to the extension of La Salle street as it runs from the river to Jackson? The building on this site is old and its replacement would be a gain rather than a loss. The small street that would be closed would not be missed if La Salle were carried through, and the removal of the La Salle street station and its tracks, which is being approached, would open the street through. Furthermore the Board of Trade would still be on La Salle street and in just as convenient a location.

S. BRUCE MCNAIR.

SPARROWS.

La Porte, Ind., March 14.—Perhaps M. P. D., who writes as a friend of the sparrows, is not familiar with the government report on English sparrows. His 15 years of feeding them has provided a breeding center which has furnished a very expensive to the farmers whose grain they eat. The sparrows do not eat bugs, worms and insects. Bulletin No. 1 of the division of economic ornithology and mammalogy of the United States department of agriculture tells us that "this pest was first introduced into the United States at Brooklyn, N. Y., in 1851 and 1852. As late as 1870 it was confined to the cities of the Atlantic states, but since that date, partly through man's agency and partly through the birds' rapid increase in numbers and adaptability, it has spread over most of the United States and Canada, east of the great plains, and isolated colonies are established throughout the west."

This report states that during a year the sparrow added approximately 515,000 square miles to the territory occupied by it. The day is evidently not at hand when the English sparrow will be in complete possession of the country.

Sparrows are pugnacious and will begin to fight their kind as soon as they leave their own nests. "They increase so rapidly that they must have room for colonization," and they drive out all other birds to accomplish their purpose. MRS. WILLIAM CHAWFORD.

WHAT THEY EAT.

Urbana, Ill., March 14.—I have thrown out crumbs for the birds for a number of years and find the sparrows friendly and gay at all seasons. They are almost the only birds which remain all winter to cheer one. One year I scattered bread crumbs in my garden among the cabbage and the sparrows came in great bunches. They ate not only the crumbs but all the green cabbage worms, too, and I had nice cabbage heads when others complained of the worms, and that their cabbage would not head. I am sure the sparrows saved mine.

THE IRISH TRICOLOR.

Chicago, March 14.—While the spirit of Liam O'Dubhail's letter is admirable, his facts are woefully wrong. He can't expect the window dressers to do better when he himself is so badly misinformed? The Irish flag is not green, white and gold and never has been. The tricolor of Ireland is green, white and orange. For sixty odd years it has been the emblem of Irish nationalism. The Anglophiles are not responsible for the green flag. It was first introduced by the founders of Irish republicanism in 1791.

NICARAGUA ARMY BEATEN; 300 FALL IN 8 HOUR BATTLE

BY GERALD MARTIN.
(Chicago Tribune Press Service.)

TOUSTEPE, Nicaragua, March 15.—(Chicago Tribune Press Service.)—Around the waters of the Rio Grande, covering a territory twenty-five miles square, and part of the section where the San Juan has decided Nicaragua's destiny, the last forty-eight hours there has been written another chapter in the country's history. It is the story of a battle with more than 300 casualties, and casualties in Central American revolutions mostly mean deaths—and deaths mean the passing on of the "moro" types, or young natives, led away to the battle by force, usually the night before, and oftentimes fighting for a cause in which they are not interested.

The forces of the Liberal leader, Gen. Moncada, commanded by Gen. Sandoval, captured May Múy. The Conservatives retired to San Gerónimo, where, after a battle lasting eight hours, during which the machine guns barked continually, Gen. Salvador Rivas, the commander of the government troops, was forced to retire to Minerve, where John H. Willey, a Californian, owns a mine.

Lack of Bullets Forces Retreat.

The retreat was forced by lack of ammunition. The stores were replenished this afternoon when Gen. Velasquez arrived from Darío with 300 troops, including cavalry, ten machine guns and 24,000 rounds of bullets. The conservatives plan a flank attack against Matigues, where Gen. Moncada has established his headquarters, at dawn tomorrow.

The Liberals captured the village of Acopya in Chontales department and are still holding May Múy, but there was a sickening sight after a battle scene, where often times wounded men must lie in a field helpless for days, and then a final fight for the spark of life, with the ever hovering buzzards overhead. Red Cross surgeons barely exist, and with the victors hurrying after those in retreat, the losers have little time to think of their wounded comrades.

Schoemaker, Stege Drop Suits Against Coroner

Suits for slander, asking $100,000 each from Coroner Oscar Wolf, were dismissed yesterday by Chief William Schoemaker and Deputy Chief John P. Stege of the detective bureau. TRACE BLAME IN NICARAGUA CASE TO EX-OFFICIAL

Washington, D. C., March 15.—(Special.)—The mystery surrounding charges that the United States exerted pressure in bringing about the election of President Diaz in Nicaragua, took a new twist today when the source of the published charges was traced to a former state department official.

This official, a close friend of Lawrence Dennis, first secretary of the legation at Managua and storm center of the prevailing controversy over alleged favoritism in diplomatic assignments, is understood to have first announced that Dennis had in his possession documentary evidence that the state department dictated the election of Diaz.

YOU like beautiful furniture; everybody does. It's a good thing, under these circumstances, that there's so much beautiful furniture made.

The modern designers are rendering us a great service by going to the old sources of creative art in furniture, and bringing to us, modified for our present homes, such works as these.

This dining room suite is adapted from the glowing period of Louis XVI.; the rich tones of walnut, one of our most attractive woods, with imported panels made of precious woods. It is a group that will be a treasure for many years, in any home where it finds a place.

Notice the very low prices; "Scholle-quality"; satisfaction guaranteed.

STUNTED MIND RULES CROARKIN, LAWYER ARGUES

Ahern Pleads for Life of Young Slayer.

Man's ability to live and to do is limited by the stress of the tools he is given, and if those tools are dulled and bent and dwarfed, he is not to be blamed for coming a cropper, declared Michael J. Ahern yesterday as he argued for the life of his client, Harold J. Croarkin.

At a night session Attorney Ahern concluded his plea and today State's Attorney Crowe is expected to close for the prosecution with a demand that the jury find Croarkin sane and sentence him to be hanged.

"Give a carpenter a crooked saw, a broken mallet and a jagged plane and he will turn out a wretched cabinet. Would you hang him for it?" Ahern asked, speaking to the jury in Chief Justice William J. Landis's court. "You have heard of the sorry tools of mind and body that are possessed by this defendant. Can you blame him for what he did? Can you not see it was an irresistible impulse—that the mind had no power to stop the hand?"

He Defines the Mind. "What is the mind? The Century dictionary says it is that which feels and thinks and wills."

And then Mr. Ahern went into a learned discussion of the mind and the senses. There was not much mention of Croarkin, and none at all of the slain Walter Schmitt, and some of the state attaches were moved to inquire what it all had to do with a murder trial.

Attorney Ahern began his address by admitting the procedure was ridiculous. "Our law is far behind science," he said. "Isn't it archaic and ridiculous procedure that such a cause as this should be tried in a court of justice, and that twelve laymen who know nothing about its medical merits should pass upon it? It is a relic of the middle ages."

Should Not Try Insane.

"We should have a state commission of alienists, rendering an impartial report to the court. Then if a man is found sane he should be tried and punished, for if he is insane he should not be tried."

"Shall we kill the sick instead of during them? Would you hang a baby that accidentally picked up a knife and struck her mother in a vital spot? No, you say, and this defendant has no more mental resistance than the baby.

"This youth had no emotions of the sort to dislodge him from irresistible impulse. His fear choked out his reason and he killed."

Need Doctors, Not Jailers.

"These men need cures, hospitals—not prisons and jails and padded cells—that's barbarism. They need doctors and nurses, not jailers and hangmen."

The state's alienists themselves raised doubts as to the defendant's sanity. Attorney Ahern argued in the evening, and in the case of one, Dr. H. Douglas Singer, the lawyer presented a book written by Singer which discussed insanity in such terms as proved the insanity of Croarkin, he said.

Dr. Francis P. Gerty, the first state alienist, was asked whether the whole picture presented of Croarkin was that of a normal mind. Attorney Ahern reminded the jury, "I had given the reply that he couldn't an-over the question with a "yes" or a "no."

"If Dr. Gerty could have honestly said yes, he would have done so," said Attorney Ahern. "So it must be that he believes Croarkin is abnormal. Dr. Read gave you the same attitude when the same question was asked."

Then the lawyer read from Dr. Singer's book, giving symptom by symptom as the expert gave it for dementia praecox, and applying each one to Croarkin.

"The whole picture—Croarkin's physical state, his 'shut-in' type of personality, his taking to drink, and his change of habits last September—all give you a perfect picture, in Dr. Singer's language, of dementia praecox," Ahern declared.

"And that is the man the state's attorney wants you to hang. I say to you gentlemen that a just verdict in this case is to send the boy to the Chester asylum for the criminal insane."

SEGREGATION OF MORONS NOW UP TO LAWMAKERS

Springfield, Ill., March 15.—(Special.)—It is now up to the Illinois legislature to take action against the mentally defective criminal. The long-awaited bill providing for segregation of these offenders was introduced today by Representative Thomas O'Grady of Chicago. It appeared with the backing in person of John W. Gibson, commissioner of Cook county, and representatives of the Chicago bar, the Chicago Crime Commission, many women's clubs, and other civic organizations, and with the support of the Cook county and Chicago judiciary.

The bill is called a model, and its supporters say its passage will place

Illinois at the head of the states in the treatment of mental defectives with criminal tendencies. A companion measure was introduced with the bill, calling for an appropriation of $1,000,000 for the purchase of land and the erection of buildings for a state colony of mental defectives.

Mental Defective Defined. "Mental defective," according to the bill, is one possessed of a defect of intellect, of moral perception or emotion, or of will to such a degree that he is possessed of uncontrollable criminal propensities and is a menace to the life and property of others.

Three general categories of such mental defectives are included:

1. Persons convicted of a felony or misdemeanor punishable by imprisonment but not yet sentenced.

2. Juveniles charged with delinquency.

3. Inmates of penal institutions, especially applicants for pardon or parole.

Method of Examination.

In cases of the first category the bill provides that the court of its own motion or on application by the state's attorney or representatives of the defendant may order an inquiry into the defendant's mental condition by two psychiatrists. If the evidence discloses no mental deficiency the defendant is sentenced. If mental deficiency is disclosed the state's attorney shall file a commitment petition on which a full hearing is granted both sides, with court and state having the right to have the defendant examined by alienists.

On a finding of mental deficiency the defendant is sent to the farm colony, to remain there as long as he appears abnormal. Delinquent children, not convicted, and convicts may be examined in similar manner.

May Demand Jury Trial.

"While drastic and thorough," Commissioner Gibson declared, "every proposition in the bill is made to guard the rights of the individual. The individual receives a full hearing on the commitment petition and may call his own experts or demand a jury. The bill specifically states that the defendant always has the right to habeas corpus proceedings. A petition for a rehearing may be filed at any time after commitment."

CAPITAL SLASH STIRS ROW IN MARCONI FIRM

Inventor Blamed for Loss;
Threatens to Quit.

BY DAVID DARRAH.
[Chicago Tribune Press Service.]
LONDON, March 15.—Angry men and women boomed and hissed Senator William Marconi, the wireless inventor, at a tumultuous meeting of 800 shareholders of the Marconi Wireless Telegraph company today. The meeting was called to consider the board's drastic proposals to reduce the company's capital by writing down the present value of £3,250,000 [about $16,250,000] to £1,875,000 [about $9,375,000].

Sig. Marconi spoke hopefully of the prospects for the company because of the new beam system and other inventions he said he had up his sleeve, which drew cheers from his admirers. However, dissatisfied shareholders who blame him for bad investments and financial losses, started a counter-attack which unnerved the inventor and precipitated the disorderly scenes.

"Sit Down!" Marconi Shouts.
When C. L. Nordon, chairman of the subcommittee which is opposed to the Marconi group, and which has submitted counter-regulations about the capital reduction, got up to speak. Sig. Marconi pointed his finger at him, shouting, "Sit down! I am not calling on you to speak. I am running the meeting and I will maintain order."

Mr. Nordon shouted: "I do not dare to publish the facts I have got of the colossal mismanagement of this company. I have got hundreds of heart-breaking letters from shareholders."

Sig. Marconi said that if Mr. Nordon's proposals were accepted he would sever all connections with the company, even the technical service, and refuse to accept the presidency offered to him in return for resigning his chairmanship of the board of directors.

Directors Defend Cut.

The directors vigorously defended the board's policy of outlining efforts to retrieve past losses. They said that writing down the capital was necessary to meet a reduction in the value of the company's assets, caused by the unremunerative investments in subsidiary companies. Other factors of loss included inauguration of the beam system, making the present plants obsolete, the depreciation of the company's holdings in foreign currencies, and the claims in an Argentine lawsuit. It was revealed that the beam system to Canada is operating at a great loss.

Sig. Marconi, defending his actions, said that he would soon produce new wireless wonders, including a system of transmitting words without spelling them out.

Another storm broke when Sig. Marconi finally agreed to take a poll on adopting the report of the directors proposing the capital reduction.

The poll was taken amid disorderly scenes. The capital reduction was accepted.

RUSSIANS BUILD FOR BIG GAS WAR, BRITISH CHARGE

[Chicago Tribune Press Service.]
LONDON, March 15.—The soviet government is setting up poison gas factories, capable of great production, and is making an intensive study of the possibility of gas warfare, Sir L. Worthington Evans, British war minister, told the house of commons to night. He refused to reveal his source of information.

Replying to further questions, Sir Worthington said greater preparation for this kind of warfare was being made in Russian territory than anywhere else in the world, and the soviet government was planning to store huge quantities of gas for eventual use.

Socialist members proposed that the government should offer to abandon this weapon entirely if Russia did the same. Sir Worthington replied that Russia was not a signatory to the Washington convention and would not attend the league of nations conference on this subject.

Further indicating the great attention the British are giving Russia's fighting strength, Sir Worthington told the house that the soviet standing army now was 650,000, with a total of 1,000,000 if the territorial militia was counted. He estimated the reserve strength at 8,000,000 additional troops.

In One Week LaSalle Captures Premier Place

In view of the surpassing regard in which the public has always held Cadillac, the immediate taking over by the LaSalle of leadership in its particular class was something to be expected.

At the same time, this instant and eager acceptance throughout America—which, practically over-night, places the LaSalle in premier position—is undoubtedly the most amazing tribute ever accorded a car and a company.

Cadillac finds in the LaSalle a worthy co-partner in that high genius for engineering and craftsmanship which, until the advent of this companion-car, had left Cadillac practically alone in the fine car field.

That fact is plain to the public. It recognizes in this car something more than unique style, luminous beauty, great engineering, and an entirely different kind and degree of performance.

America sees in the LaSalle a car as new as this morning's sun, yet as old as Cadillac's twenty-five years of leadership and responsibility. It recognizes in it still another signal triumph for the 90-degree, V-type, eight-cylinder principle which has been the basis of Cadillac's success since its introduction 14 years ago.

And, seeing in this other-brother the basic virtues it has always admired in Cadillac, America has taken the LaSalle to its heart with the warmth and enthusiasm with which it always welcomes the man or the product which is genuinely great and good.

In the light of these facts we, as merchants of both Cadillac and LaSalle motor cars, would appear lacking in gratitude did we fail to thank the people of this community, publicly, for their remarkable and whole-hearted reception and acceptance of the LaSalle.

Planned and Easy to Prepare!

The list of economy dinners planned in the column to the left, coupled with these low priced offerings assure you of a delicious dinner at the minimum price.

Cape Cod Recipes

Souffle of Codfish

1 cup salt codfish
4 cups sliced raw potatoes
2 tablespoons milk
2 eggs
2 tablespoons butter
½ teaspoon paprika
1 tablespoon chopped parsley

If the fish is very salty, separate into small pieces, cover with water and soak 3 hours, changing the water every hour. Boil the fish and potatoes in water to cover until the latter are done. Drain and mash. Add the seasonings, butter, milk and egg yolks. Beat until very light, then fold in the stiffly beaten egg whites. Pour into a buttered baking dish and bake until brown, about 20 minutes.

Codfish with Brown Sauce

2 cups salt codfish
6 tablespoons butter
3 tablespoons flour
1½ cups water
1 onion, chopped
1 tablespoon parsley, chopped
1 tablespoon chopped green pepper
Few grains mace

Flake codfish, cover with water and let stand over night. Drain thoroughly and fry in butter. When slightly browned, add flour and cook until both are browned. Add water and seasonings and cook for 15 minutes, stirring constantly until thickened and smooth. Serve on hot platter surrounded with hot cooked rice and buttered peas.

Fish Balls

1 cup shredded salt codfish
6 medium-sized potatoes
½ tablespoon butter
1 teaspoon pepper
½ teaspoon baking powder
1 egg

Freshen the codfish. Cook the potatoes in boiling unsalted water until nearly done, then add the fish and boil until potatoes are soft. Drain, shake over the fire to dry; then mash and add butter, pepper, baking powder and beaten egg. When cool, mold into balls and roll in flour. Fry in deep fat.

SUPREME COURT URGED TO SPEED SLAYERS' CASES

Members of the State Supreme court are to be asked by Sheriff Charles E. Graydon, it was announced yesterday, to take steps, if possible, to speed up procedure of the high court so that sentences imposed by juries and upheld by the lower courts may be carried out more expeditiously.

The sheriff called on Warden Edward J. Fogarty of the county jail to furnish him with the official records showing that Henry J. [Midget] Fernekes, gunman and convicted murderer, and his two companions, Daniel L. McGeoghegan and John Flannery, have been waiting for thirteen months for a decision from the Supreme court on their appeal from a gallowa sentence.

Also to Ask Action on Scott.

The case of Russell Scott, slayer of a drug clerk during the robbery of a loop drug store, will be another that the sheriff will ask the court to speed up. The records show that Scott, sentenced to be hanged on Oct. 15, 1926, was granted a supersedeas two days before the execution date that carried the case to the Supreme court.

"I do not know what I can do about it, but I shall take whatever steps are possible to see that the sentences imposed by juries are more promptly carried out," said Sheriff Graydon. "I shall take the matter up with a member of the high court in the near future."

"I cannot understand why decisions have not been given in the Fernekes, McGeoghegan, Flannery and Scott cases. Those sentences were meant to be carried out when they were inflicted by juries."

Danger in Delay, Sheriff Says.
"The jail situation has awakened in Cook county to the dangers of keeping known desperate men, even if they are in jail, for any length of time after sentence has been imposed. Warden Fogarty is absolutely right in complaining of the existing situation."

The warden was commended yesterday by Criminal court attaches for his courage in calling attention to the slow progress of justice in the Fernekes and Scott cases.

Even Fernekes is said to be becoming impatient at the delay in his case. He has several times asked jail authorities, they said, why the higher court does not return a decision one way or another. He passes his time reading and writing short stories, which he hopes to have published.

Record of Russell Scott Case.

The record in the Russell Scott case as furnished to Sheriff Graydon yesterday is as follows:

April 7, 1924, first committed to the jail. Dec. 12, 1924, sentenced to be hanged on April 17, 1925, supersedeas granted and appeal later denied.

July 17, 1925, stay of execution granted. July 24, 1925, another stay of execution. Aug. 6, 1925, committed to Chester asylum on an insanity hearing.

May 24, 1926, returned to the jail as sane. July 4, 1926, found sane and ready sentenced to hang on Oct. 15, 1926. Oct. 13, 1926, supersedeas again granted. Warden Fogarty pointed out that the Supreme court acted with promptness in the John Walton Winn case. Winn was a co-defendant with Grandma Eliza Nussbaum at the trial for murder of her husband, Albert, a South Chicago contractor.

In that case the higher court granted a supersedeas on Oct. 7, 1926, and gave a decision at the February term setting April 15 as the day for execution.

Co-ed Debater's Illness Proves to Be Measles

Miss Katherine Hicks, the only Northwestern university co-ed who has made a varsity debating team in three years, complained of being ill before she and her colleagues faced a University of Wisconsin team at Madison last Thursday. Nevertheless she went on the platform and Northwestern won. Yesterday Miss Hicks was quarantined in the university infirmary and, according to physicians, has a well-developed case of measles.

DETECTIVE TELLS HOW CARRINGTON CANED BROTHER

Separated Them, He Testifies.

New York, March 15.—[Special.]—A private detective formerly employed by Col. Edward C. Carrington to watch the home of his wife for divorce evidence was the principal witness against him today at his trial for felonious assault brought by his brother, Campbell Carrington.

The detective, Michael Diorio, gave an eye-witness account of the caning of Campbell Carrington in front of the home of Mrs. Edward Carrington on the night of Feb. 23. He testified that the colonel ran up to his brother from behind and struck him several times before the complainant got into action.

When Campbell Carrington turned beneath the beating, he testified, and lifted his cane to protect himself, the case was struck from his hand. The brothers then came to grips. Diorio said he was in an automobile near by. He leaped from the automobile and ran to separate the struggling brothers.

"Call a policeman," he said the colonel shouted. He said he did not think such an errand was properly his, so passed the instruction along to another onlooker. "Both these men are gentlemen," he recalled the newcomer saying. "What do they want with a policeman?"

He and the chauffeur left their posts before Mrs. Carrington's home, into which they had seen Campbell go at 3 p. m. to emerge at 10, and accompanied Campbell Carrington to a hospital, the witness said. At the hospital Campbell Carrington gave each of them $20 for their kindness.

David Podell, counsel for the colonel, attacked the witness in cross examination, as having accepted money from Campbell Carrington while in the colonel's employ.

"I took the $20 as a reward for separating them," the detective declared.

WRITES GOOD-BY NOTE TO WIFE; TAKES OWN LIFE

"Dear Emma: I'm on the way if the gas works all right. Don't forget to return my library books—they're due on the twenty-third. Good-bye, John." Thus wrote John J. Wandas, 72 years old, 2304 Eastwood avenue. That letter was found by his wife yesterday afternoon at 5 o'clock when she returned from the Ravenswood hospital, where she had been comforting the parents of two children who were undergoing an operation.

Wandas' body lay in the living room of their flat, which was filled with gas escaping from an artificial fireplace. Dr. Darwin Pond, who was summoned, declared he had been dead for several hours.

Mrs. Wandas said that her husband had been in ill health for a year.

PREDICTS RISE IN AUTO ACCIDENT INSURANCE RATE

Increased rates on automobile accident insurance were predicted yesterday by John E. Ahern of the Travelers' Insurance company in an address before 700 insurance men at the mid winter meeting of the Health and Accident Underwriters' conference in the Palmer house yesterday.

Motor accidents have increased so greatly that a boost in rates is certain, the speaker declared. Underwriters will be forced to confer this spring on the situation, and declare higher rates, he said.

"During the last two years, the number of automobile accidents has taken an enormous leap until today no fewer than 33 per cent of all non-occupational accidents are caused by the automobile," Mr. Ahern stated.

One death yesterday as a result of an auto accident raised the 1927 Cook county toll to 163.

Henry Falar, 17 years old, 4212 Greenwood avenue, was fatally injured last night when the automobile in which he and his companion were riding skidded and crashed into a pole at 88th street and Stony Island avenue. Falar died at the Jackson park hospital.

Walter Cliff, 1220 Belmont avenue, was held responsible by a coroner's jury for the death of Edward Haseman, 17 years old, who was killed Feb. 12 when Cliff's truck knocked him down. The driver was held to the grand jury on a charge of manslaughter.

Anthony Zuranski, 44 years old, 183 North Racine avenue, was killed Monday night by a vampire at Racine and Milwaukee avenues.

Friendly hands may spread disease

This toilet soap removes germs!

"If a germ could talk it would tell you that nothing pleases him more than to get a free ride from someone's soiled hands to some other person's mouth," says the U. S. Public Health Service.

Not shaking hands alone, but many things you and your children must do—touching money, car-straps, telephones, books—may transmit germs to hands.

The Life Extension Institute lists 27 germ diseases—ranging from colds and grippe to diphtheria. Why take needless chances when this purifying toilet soap helps safeguard family health—removes germs as well as dirt!

IF BACK HURTS FLUSH KIDNEYS

When your kidneys hurt and your back feels sore, don't get scared and proceed to load your stomach with a lot of drugs that excite the kidneys and irritate the entire urinary tract. Keep your kidneys clean like you keep your bowels clean by flushing them with a mild, harmless salts which helps to remove the body's urinous waste and stimulate them to their normal activity.

The function of the kidneys is to filter the blood. In 24 hours they strain from it 500 grains of acid and waste, so we can readily understand the vital importance of keeping the kidneys active.

Drink lots of good water—you can't drink too much—also get from any pharmacist about four ounces of Jad Salts. Take a tablespoonful in a glass of water before breakfast each morning for a few days and your kidneys may then act fine. This famous salts is made from the acid of grapes and lemon juice, combined with lithia, and has been used for years to help clean and stimulate clogged kidneys; also to neutralize the acids in the system so they are no longer a source of irritation, thus often relieving bladder weakness.

Jad Salts is inexpensive; cannot injure; makes a delightful effervescent lithia-water drink which everyone should take now and then to help keep their kidneys clean and active. Try this; also keep up the water drinking, and no doubt you will wonder what became of your kidney trouble and backache.

GARDEN MAKERS SET TO WORK FOR TRIBUNE CONTEST

28 Clubs Unite to Make It a Success.

BY FRANK RIDGWAY.

Twenty-eight garden clubs of Chicago and its suburbs are planning to aid in making THE TRIBUNE's $5,000 flower garden contest a success. Mrs. Frederick Fisher of the Glencoe Garden club and head of the garden club committee at the recent flower show, has called a meeting of garden club workers throughout the Chicago territory.

They will meet at the Drake hotel Friday noon to discuss the contest and lay plans to encourage the planting and cultivation of back yards in Chicago. Mrs. Fisher announced yesterday.

Letters coming to THE TRIBUNE yesterday reflected the gardening activity that has sprung up since THE TRIBUNE's contest was announced last Sunday. Many a rusty hoe and spade has been hauled out of tool sheds and garages by those who are planning to get an early start in the competition. Some already have fired up their hedges while waiting for a coupon that will officially enlist them in the contest. Olive M. Clippinger of 817 South 15th avenue, Maywood, writes: "Have just started out hotbed, and we are intensely interested in the contest. We do all our own gardening work, even grading. Last year we had a beautiful array of flowers, and every one who drove by our home remarked about our yard. We raised practically all our own plants in a hotbed in our back yard. We had twenty-two varieties."

The Clippingers are doing just what dozens of others are doing—getting their garden ready—and all they will have to do is fill out their coupon. Mrs. Clippinger wants to know whether pictures taken before the garden is started and after it is made will be required in the contest.

The answer is no. About all that is going to be required is for the contestant to work hard to produce the best garden he is capable of making, then wait for the judges to come around and hope they'll award him one of the cash prizes—perhaps the $1,000 grand prize.

Watch THE TRIBUNE for contest news. Coupon will appear for the first time along with rules and instructions in next Sunday's paper.

CONTEMPT CASE OF SINCLAIR TO GO TO JURY TODAY

Washington, D. C., March 15.—(Special.)—Final arguments in the trial of Harry F. Sinclair, millionaire oil operator, charged with contempt of the senate during the Teapot Dome oil scandal investigation three years ago, will probably be completed and the case given to the jury late tomorrow afternoon. Less than four hours in all will be required for the final pleas to the jury, it was indicated by counsel for both sides.

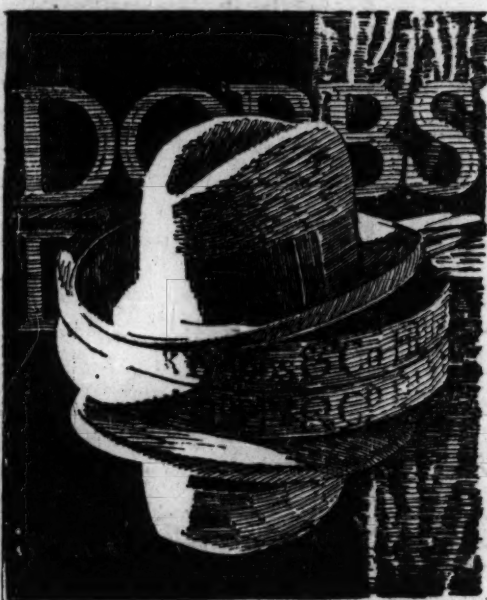

The trial, now in its second week, entered the closing stage today when Justice William Hitz denied a defense motion for a directed acquittal verdict, and ruled, "as a matter of law," that the questions Sinclair refused to answer were pertinent to the oil inquiry. The court rejected all but five of the forty-five special instructions to the jury suggested.

As a result of the ruling that the questions asked by members of the senate public lands committee were pertinent to the investigation, the jury is left merely to determine if Sinclair appeared before the committee and refused to answer.

I sell my firm's advertising to the dealer—I've found it gets the orders

By V. J. Thill
LIFE SAVERS, INC.

A long time ago I discovered this about selling: There is a lot of competition on almost any product—but effective advertising tends to make competition relatively harmless.

For years I have used reprints of my firm's advertising more than I have used my sample case. In fact dealers and jobbers upon whom I called used to call me the "picture show man."

I have always given them the "pictures" first—then the figures.

I show them how my firm's national advertising is selling LIFE SAVERS for them locally. I show them the advertising and tell them why it is getting business for them. And they are willing to tie-up with it; willing to buy LIFE SAVERS and willing to display LIFE SAVERS right out in front.

In telling retailers about my firm's advertising in The American Magazine I have found The Vest Pocket Sales-Maker a great help. It really clinches my argument about the local value of national advertising, and, of course, it gets the orders.

V. J. Thill

V. J. Thill began as missionary salesman for Life Savers, Inc., in the Middle West in September 1920.

He was promoted to position of crew manager and later placed in charge of a sales division as Division Sales Manager.

Then by reason of his successful application of the values of advertising including magazine advertising to salesmen, retailers, jobbers and others, he became Sales Promotion Manager covering the United States east of the Rockies. Within the past twelve months was promoted to Field Sales Manager.

HERE are a few facts you can use to show any dealer what your firm's advertising in The American Magazine means to him—how it is getting business for him, bringing customers into his store.

1. Tell him about The American Magazine's huge circulation of 2,200,000 families—more than 10 million readers every month.

The dealer knows that the more people pass his store, the more trade he will get. Likewise, the more local people your firm's advertisements reach, the more sales they will make for him. And The American reaches a lot of them.

2. Point out that The American Magazine stays in local homes a whole month. Each of your firm's advertisements is ALIVE a full 30 days.

That makes it practically certain that they will be seen and read. And any dealer will understand that the sales-making value of an advertisement, like a window display, is measured by the number of people it stops.

3. Emphasize the fact that many independent check-ups have shown that The American Magazine is read by ALL MEMBERS OF THE FAMILY.

You won't have to say much about the importance of this. Every dealer knows that nowadays everybody in the family has something to say about most home purchases—from Life Savers to bathroom equipment.

4. Stress the kind of people who read The American Magazine—people with ambition and a desire to live better from year to year. In other words, the sort of people who are every retailer's best customers.

Just talk on this point from your own personal acquaintance with The American Magazine. You know the kind of articles and stories you find in it—the kind that stimulate people to be more, have more—and that means BUY more.

That, in brief, is your story on your firm's advertising in The American Magazine—four simple points, easy to remember, easy to explain. But if you get them over, you have sent home four of the most important reasons why your firm's product, if it is advertised in The American Magazine, has back of it the greatest single force for increasing merchandise consumption in America.

To help you get them over we have published The Vest Pocket Sales-Maker. It gives facts and figures to back up the four points above for all towns of 1,000 and over, and for all countries.

Send for the new edition now—and use it to make your firm's advertising write orders for you. Please give your firm's name. Address The Crowell Publishing Company, 250 Park Avenue, New York.

THE GREATEST SINGLE FORCE FOR INCREASING MERCHANDISE CONSUMPTION IN AMERICA

DEARTH'S TRIAL MONDAY TESTS COURTS' POWERS

BY PHILIP KINSLEY.

Muncie, Ind., March 15.—(Special.)—Two questions of fundamental importance and interest, politically and socially, are involved in the impeachment of Circuit Judge Clarence W. Dearth of Muncie which is to be tried at a special session of the state senate for next Monday in Indianapolis. One is the question of the free speech clause of the bill of rights inserted in Judge Dearth's unprecedented action in stopping the sale of a newspaper on the streets of Muncie because the paper contained an article which he considered slanderous. The second issue is that this case will set a precedent in impeachment proceedings and grounds paving the way for a Supreme court decision in a matter in which there is great confusion and disagreement.

New Field of Political Attack. This latter question is in the minds of many lawyers and politicians of even more far-reaching possibilities and consequences than the free press clause. There is no support for the judge's hasty action in stopping the sale of newspapers and even his friends admit that he made a mistake. The real trial will be over the method which Judge Dearth has used in selecting juries and running his court.

If it is found possible to impeach and remove a judge for things of this sort it is pointed out that politicians such as E. S. Shumaker, dry bones, or the machine bosses of any group that controls a block of votes in the legislature might find this way open to remove other judges who stand in their way. The present situation in which Mr. Shumaker finds himself, is that of standing in possible contempt before the Supreme court because of his remarks and writings about judges he did not like, illustrates the potentialities of a new and easier method of attacking judges.

The Legislature's Power.

For the question that will come out of the Dearth case for the decision is whether the state legislature has the power to impeach and remove a judge for any reason other than that he has been convicted of corruption in office. Can stopping newspaper sales be called corruption? Can selection of men on juries who are not freeholders be called corruption? The judiciary of Indiana has not been attacked this way in a hundred years. Perhaps this is the first case in the United States where a judge has been impeached under the bill of rights, for this is the same in the state and federal constitutions.

Calls It Unconstitutional.

Attorney General Arthur L. Gilliom maintains that the impeachment of Dearth is unconstitutional; that the jury matter could have been settled by challenges or in some other way and that the newspapers whose papers were taken away from them had recourse in a robbery charge. But in whose court, the Dearth opponents ask. The trouble in which Dearth now finds himself goes back to the anti-klan war of four years ago. George Dale, editor of a weekly newspaper, was adjudged in contempt of court at that time for publishing a statement that one could not get a fair trial in the Circuit court, as it was klan-packed.

This judgment was affirmed against Dale and he now has taken an appeal to the United States Supreme court. In the meantime he continued the fight against Dearth and on Feb. 19, last, printed an anonymous letter in his paper headed "The Wages of Sin Is Death." Just before this there had been a shooting in a poolroom in Muncie red light district and two men were killed. The writer of the unsigned letter charged that Judge Dearth and Mayor John Hampton were responsible for these deaths on the theory that the mayor could have stopped the wide open condition in the town and that if he did not Dearth had power to impeach him.

Holds 50 Newspapers.

Judge Dearth summoned the police and in a short time had 50 newspapers in his court. They were ordered to stop selling the papers and threatened with being sent to the Juvenile Detention home.

The Dearth idea as announced at that time was that "a person who sells a newspaper containing slander is guilty of a felony." Later he spoke of it as a misdemeanor. Whether or not he regretted his action, nothing has happened to the boys, the editor of the paper has fled the state, as a new indictment is pending against him, charge unknown, and he is editing his paper from a town across the Ohio border. The Indianapolis Times a few days after this began an investigation of the story that the principle of free speech was endangered by this court. Soon afterward the impeachment movement was begun before the legislature and carried through successfully.

MANDAMUS DELAYED

Indianapolis, Ind., March 15.—(Special.)—Judge Clarence W. Dearth of the Delaware county Circuit court will be tried on articles of impeachment by the Indiana state senate March 21, before his friends will be able to test the constitutionality of the impeachment statute of 1897 in the state Supreme court, it developed today. Judge Harry O. Chamberlain of Marion county Circuit court asserted it would be impossible for him to hear at this time the mandamus proceedings brought to compel Gov. Ed Jackson to remove Dearth from the bench.

The mandamus proceedings were filed by E. R. Temple, Muncie attorney and friend of Dearth, to test the constitutionality of the state impeachment statute.

MANILA, March 15.—(UP)—The provincial board of occidental Negros province has adopted a resolution forbidding bobbed hair and European dress for the women there. The board demanded a return to Filipino styles as "more modest."

COMMITTEE WILL MEET FRIDAY TO PLAN CIVIC HALL

With the appointment yesterday of William R. Dawes, president of the Chicago Association of Commerce, as chairman of the Chicago-Cook County Civic Stadium commission, Anton J. Cernak, president of the county board, called the first meeting of the committee for Friday morning in the county board rooms.

Letters were sent to each of the 154 prominent Chicagoans named members of the committee, asking them to attend and join in the discussion of ways and means of bringing about construction of a huge auditorium in which conventions and exhibitions may be held.

Expect Full Attendance.

Subcommittees will be named to concentrate on different phases of the problem, it was said. A full attendance in expected because of the interest aroused by the proposal to build a hall which will adequately house the big events which come to Chicago.

Mr. Cernak pointed out that fifty-one cities of the United States have municipal auditoriums and that all of them have proved profitable investments in addition to enhancing the reputation of the city in which they were constructed.

Should Seat 40,000.

A chart showing the relation of the seating capacities of the various auditoriums to the approximate population was prepared by an engineering firm. The seating capacity of Chicago's auditorium should be about 40,000 to be ideal, it was asserted, as that would give one seat to each 75 persons in this locality, the same proportion as is maintained in Cleveland. In New York, there are 550 persons to each seat in the local auditorium, it was stated. The proportions were 30 to 1 in Kansas City, 61 to 1 in Milwaukee, 96 to 1 in San Francisco, and ranged down to 3 to 1 in Hastings, Neb. Atlantic City was not listed as it has a transient population, it was explained.

HANDS GET THIRTY-SIX TIMES.

Two men sold of Malsager's dry goods store, 2445 Madison avenue, last night, held up Mrs. G. C. Lowe, the clerk, and rifled the cash register of $50, then carried away three boxes and three suitcases.

Hair Loss Is No Joke

HERPICIDE WILL SAVE IT! HERPICIDE WILL SAVE IT! TOO LATE FOR HERPICIDE!

Save Your Hair With

Newbro's Herpicide

Neglect of Dandruff and indifference to hair loss bring much regret in later years. Dandruff is a germ disease and its mastery requires thoughtful and intelligent treatment. For this purpose Newbro's Herpicide is the only remedy.

Newbro's Herpicide was especially prepared and its success—in many cases extraordinary—has been continuous for over 25 years. Even the first application is convincing. Begin its use today. It is sold in all drug stores.

Unchecked, throat germs multiply!

At the first sign of sore throat

Start antiseptic treatment... make it continuous

ONCE you could not start to fight sore throat till you got home. You had to rely on a mere gargle night and morning.

But now you can fight the dangerous throat germs all day long.

With Formamint, the throat is kept continuously bathed in an antiseptic of proved germicidal power. Yet Formamint cannot harm the delicate throat tissues.

Carry a bottle of these pleasant-tasting tablets with you. Take one every hour or so to treat sore throat; every two or three hours to prevent it. All druggists.

FINE FOR CHILDREN!

Give them a good start in life, with happy smiles and healthy little bodies. Children need a mild corrective occasionally to regulate stomach and bowels. Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets are a safe vegetable compound mixed with olive oil. They tone up and regulate the eliminative tract. Not a nasty cathartic or a habit-forming medicine, but a safe, pleasant remedy for constipation, sour stomach, torpid liver, bad breath, and similar disorders. Dr. Edwards, a widely known family physician of Ohio, prescribed these tablets for many years in his own practice. Children from six years up are greatly helped by them and like to take them. Recognized by their olive color, Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets overcome those irritable spells that many children are subject to, keep their bodies in active, healthy condition, skin clear and eyes bright with the light of perfect health. 15c, 30c and 60c sizes.

MEET FRIDAY TO DISCUSS CHANGES IN CRIMINAL LAW

Assembly Group to Hear Judges and Officials.

Impetus to the movement to change the Illinois criminal laws and Criminal court procedure was given yesterday by the state senate committee considering such changes. State Senator Andrew S. Cuthbertson, the chairman, invited judges, county and city officials, and representatives of civic and commercial clubs to attend a meeting Friday morning in the Union League club.

The committee consists of Mr. Cuthbertson and State Senators William S. Jewell, Jesse L. Deck, James H. Forrester, and H. S. Burgess. Among those invited were Chief of Police Morgan A. Collins, Judge William J. Lindley, chief justice of the Criminal court; Judges Jacob H. Hopkins, Harry B. Miller, Emanuel Eller, William V. Brewster, John J. Sullivan, and Philip J. Sullivan.

Others expected to attend are State's Attorney Robert E. Crowe, John H. Pasmore, clerk of the Criminal court; County Commissioner Harry A. Newby, Sheriff Charles E. Graydon, Sherman Getzler, vice president of the Chicago Title and Trust company, and Max Morduck, attorney for the Chicago Real Estate board.

Discus Fourteen Changes. Fourteen revisions of the criminal code will be discussed at the meeting. The changes were suggested by the Chicago crime commission. They include proposals that the bail act be altered, that the jury service system be changed, a new form of procedure for hearings on paroles and pardons be adopted, and that the trial judge should be permitted to examine and qualify jurors.

Tells Need of Reform. A complete renovation of criminal law, of enforcement methods and of the judiciary system is needed to halt crime in Cook county, Edward A. Zimmerman, Chicago lawyer and regional director of the American Bar association, told the Rotary club yesterday in the Sherman hotel.

Reform legislation pending in Springfield, Zimmerman added, may fall to pass, because "organized crime is more efficiently represented in the state assembly than law and order." He referred particularly to a proposed law which would make the court, rather than the jury, judge of the law in a criminal case.

Lays Blame on Public. Zimmerman disputed the facts in an editorial entitled "The Scandal of Tardy Justice," published in The Tribune, in which the legal profession was called upon to point the way to a correction of flagrant weaknesses in our protection from crime. The speaker asserted that the Bar association did point the way at the last municipal judges' election, but that the lay public chose to follow political bosses.

Justice in its administration is neither Republican nor Democratic," he continued. "In June, 1927, twenty judges of the Circuit court will be up for reelection. One new judge of the Superior court is to be elected. The present plan of those who control the Democratic and Republican party organizations of Illinois is to put over a so-called coalition judiciary ticket."

CAPTURE RUM SHIP AFTER SHOTS CRASH THROUGH ITS BOW

Charleston, S. C., March 15.—(AP)—Seven men, the crew of the British liquor laden schooner Vines, whose precipitate flight from a coast guard cutter was halted when the guardmen sent a shot crashing through its bow, were in custody here tonight while federal officers sought warrants charging violations of prohibition, customs, and maritime laws.

In addition to the charges which will be placed against the crew the vessel will be libeled and sold, District Attorney Meyer declared.

Meanwhile the Vines' cargo, valued at more than $100,000 at current bootleg prices, remains in the hold pending removal to government storage.

The coast guard cutter Muscuttin towed the Vines into the Cooper river this morning and the guardmen related a thrilling story of their encounter with the rum ship.

The Vines cleared from Nova Scotia, bound for Nassau, its papers showed. It is a three masted schooner, carrying two engines and has complete radio equipment.

Want 50 Cents Increase. Dairy men say that they see no reason why they should not be paid at least 50 cents a hundred more for milk testing 3.5 per cent butterfat to meet their present costs of production, particularly since they are producing milk on a higher standard.

The farmers were encouraged to ask for an increase in price after hearing H. D. Allebach, president of the Interstate Milk Producers' association of Philadelphia, tell that the farmers selling milk on the Philadelphia market were paid $3.60 a hundred for milk containing 4 per cent butterfat.

He told the dairymen that they must advertise milk in Chicago as they do in Philadelphia, where a $100,000 advertising fund is raised annually.

Will Seek Indemnity Rate. The Pure Milk association is also going to appeal to the state and federal government for an increase in the indemnity paid on grade dairy cows that react to the tuberculin test and have to be slaughtered.

Eleven directors were elected yesterday to carry on the work of the association, which has quadrupled its membership since its last annual meeting.

BOYS ARRESTED IN STOLEN CAR. Oscar Twinkler and Walter Lock, both 16, of Indiana Harbor, were arrested yesterday as they drove an automobile stolen from J. B. Clayton of Gary across the Indiana line. Twinkler, who carried a powder puff, had a set of automobile keys in his pocket.

FARMERS ASK SHARE IN MILK PRICE INCREASE

Will Seek $3 if the Retail Cost Goes to 15 Cents.

BY FRANK RIDGWAY.

Organized dairy farmers are going to insist on being paid their share of any increase in the retail price of milk to Chicago consumers. If Chicago is forced to pay 15 cents a quart for milk—the price hinted at recently following the union milkmen's demand for a $5 a week increase in wages—farmers will ask for a minimum price of $3 a hundred.

This demand was indicated in a resolution passed by officials and delegates attending the annual meeting of the Pure Milk association at the Morrison hotel yesterday.

How Much Are Traffic Jams Costing You?

If you would avoid a traffic jam, you must drive around it—usually on unpaved roads and bumpy streets.

And driving on unpaved highways, instead of on Concrete, takes money right out of your pocket. It greatly increases your tire bills, your gasoline bills and your repair bills.

Nor is that all. You have to pay your share of the cost of untangling traffic jams—with expensive traffic signals and additional police.

"How can these costs be reduced?" you ask.

Tell your highway authorities you want more roads, and wider ones, paved with Concrete—that you want city streets like country boulevards. Tell them you want plans made now for continuing highway programs, and are ready to back them.

Could you stand this 50,000 times a day?

Tap your finger smartly on your desk fifty times. Hurts a little—doesn't it?

Yet your stenographer strikes the keys of her machine 50,000 times or more a day—and each blow is a shock to the sensitive nerves of her finger-tips—a constant drain on her nervous energy.

This is why stenographers frequently develop functional neurosis, a condition which shows itself in headaches, pain in the arms and shoulders, nervous fatigue.

The L C Smith is the one standard typewriter with a key action that does not recoil against the typist's fingers. Its ball-bearing action is smooth, easy and swift. Let your stenographer try an L C Smith now. Your investment in her is many times the cost of her typewriter.

Pick your "spot" then go to it

There's a good sales "spot" in Massachusetts

REGARD New Bedford in terms of sales possibilities. (1) It is the fine textile center of the world. (2) It is the trading center of an area that covers the whole southeastern section of Massachusetts and includes 160,000 buyers. (3) It has a per capita wealth of over $3,000. (4) It has the largest percentage of home owners in New England. (5) It is covered by one newspaper that is read in nine out of every ten homes. (6) You can buy this newspaper at a flat rate of ten cents a line. (7) Your salesman can cover this market without loss of time with the help of the route lists we have ready for them.

Consider New Bedford as a logical spot for increased sales in 1927. Write direct to us or to our New York, Boston and Chicago representatives, the Charles H. Biddy Co.

What makes a good "spot?"

A section where people are employed continuously and therefore have money to spend.

A section so compact as to location of population that a high sales overhead may be overcome by volume sales and a profit left.

A section easy to cover with salesman in point of time and easy to blanket with intensive advertising.

Notice how New Bedford checks in every one of these points!

Tosses Away Crutch,
Then Strikes Out.

BY WESTBROOK PEGLER.

(Chicago Tribune Press Service.)
St. Petersburg, Fla., March 15.—(Returning to St. Petersburg after a year's absence, your correspondent discovers much news.)

Mr. Babe Ruth has just thrown away his crutch, leaped from his wheel chair, and dragged himself up to the plate to strike out in a ball game between the Yankees and the Braves.

The Yankees won the ball game, 4 to 5, which was a sensational departure from their custom of losing games and carried to excess until Mr. Miller Huggins quit the real estate business and went into the baseball business again.

And Mr. Walter Hagen, the golfer, has just been robbed of his entire warrent of double-breasted golfing bloom-ers.

Willing to Forget.

Your correspondent approached St.
Petersburg with misgivings because the last time he was here he composed an article for the papers reporting that Mr. Huggins was so busy chewing a sprig of alfalfa and discussing suburban life with fellow realtors in the blazers that he had no time to manage the ball club. Consequently, the Yankees merely played catch and whenever they met the Boston Braves the Braves licked them.

Mr. Huggins was seriously annoyed by the publication of these observations and, in fact, the annoyance does not seem to have been entirely assuaged even now, although the Yankees won the pennant last year and your correspondent is willing to let bygones be bygones.

When your correspondent entered the hotel where the Yankees are stopping, Mr. Lou Gehrig, the first baseman, called him "Mr. Peggy-Wiggy" with insulting intent. However, that only evoked the score, because during the last world series when Mr. Gehrig was getting his first crack in the contest, your correspondent called him
"The Final Result."

But not all of the Yankee staff were hostile to your correspondent.
For Mr. Mark Roth, the baggageman, walked up and extended his hand, saying that until Mr. Huggins became amused the Yankees did not appear to have a chance, whereas when Mr. Huggins read this criticism he began to manage the ball club and eventually ended the world's series.

You have my permission to be just as nasty as you desire this spring.
Mr. Roth said, "because I got $2,500 out of the players' pool for the series.
If there are any unkind things that you would like to know about Mr.
Huggins, do not hesitate to ask me."
Not being quite certain as to how he would be received at the ball yard, your correspondent loitered around outside the park until the game was well under way, entering just in time to see Mr. Frank Wilson, the umpire, fire two athletes connected with the Yankees. First he fired Art Fletcher, the coach, who was so giddy over his escape from the Phillies that he misbehaved in the coaching box to the extent of calling Mr. Wilson a name.

You look like the brother of a catfish," Fletcher remarked pithily. Wilson ordered him to get out of the place.
There was no pleasing Mr. Wilson, though, because when Gehrig said he was sure there were uglier men than him, Wilson somewhere in the world, although perhaps not in St. Petersburg,
Mr. Wilson fired him out, too.

About Hagen's Loss.

Cedric Durrst, the outfielder obtained from the Browns, hit a home run with the bases full in the fifth inning, but when Ruth came up to bat for the first time since he sprained a leg muscle in a practice game, he only waved his bat three times and withdrew without even fouling one. This failure was the more conspicuous because he hit for Dutch Reuther, the pitcher, who previously had knocked one for three bases.

Mr. Hagen, Reuther, and a new boy named Willy Moore pitched three innings apiece for the Yankees. Joe Gedewich and somebody named Ed Blaug and somebody else named Mills pitched for the Braves.

IN THE WAKE OF THE NEWS

KENTUCKY DERBY.

DEAR WAKE: Difference of opinion makes horse racing and I do not entirely agree with Mon-De Flanay's recent selections in this column. I nominate the following as having the best chance in the Kentucky Derby:

1. GUMM: The son of Sweeper is a natural weight carrier, probably will have Sande up, his stride is even, and he runs each furrow in almost the same time.

2. FAIR STAR: She was the leading 2 year old money winner, a fast breaker, and at home on any track.

3. SCAPA FLOW: Futurity winner and best of Man o' War's youngsters.

4. GENERAL LEE: Headed for 2 year old championship when injured at Empire City; rest will do him good.

5. WHISKERY: Son of Whisk Broom II, and good mare Prudence; his stride is short, giving better chance in his field than his stablemate, Valorous.

6. HIP RAP: Handled by the magician, Maid Hirsch, won Walden with ease against good field.

7. WAR EAGLE: Has run miles under 1:30 with 120 pounds on, Miami 3 year old champion, son of Man o' War, sure starter if trained on.

8. BLACK PANTHER: Likes distance; owned by W. J. Salmon, who is singularly lucky in his stable.

9. JUSTICE: N. Orleans champion, favors any kind of track, well advanced in training.

10. WOODBINE: Natural mudder.

Invictus Gofus.

In the heavy grass that lingers me,
Get in the rough from me to be, I
I curse the thing that angers me
And puts in jeopardy my soul.

In the full clutch of fern and fable
I green and swear and cry aloud;
Under the boots and jaws of males
My troubled head is madly bowed.

Beyond this stretch of bog and kink
Loon ferns of the coming grade;
For let the banners of these links
Find and will find me much afraid.

I mothers and how smooth the turf,
How charged with strokes the tally roll,
I always go from bad to worse—
I'll never master these durned holes.

Our Progress in Bridge.

We are embarrassed and often annoyed by remarks concerning one of our little mannerisms while attempting to learn bridge. We pick up the news that you see in the card game which we are more familiar with pick up that way. Of course, there are only five of those and thirteen in bridge, but we can't change our habits at this late date.

A Little More Ancient Scotch.

Did you hear about the Scotchman who died of starvation? He was riding on a pay-as-you-leave street car. Weco.

This Wake Is Conducted By Harvey T. Woodruff. Help! Help!

It's a Great Gamble.

Sir Harry, which won $34,400 first money of the Cofroth handicap, cost $3,000 as a yearling. The owner of Carlisle, which won last year, was reported to have refused $300,000 for him as a yearling. He ran under the name of "The Old Man". He possibly might bring one-fifth of that sum now.

Three Weeks Is Conservative.

Dear Wake: What is a reasonable length of time to wait for a contribute to be published? I've waited three and one-half weeks now. I know! It must be because you have so many other good ones. Dumb.

Dumbell Pomes.

6. Fuddy duds, and did ya hear the news that's going round?
They say we are left handed,
But boob we'll call 'em down. G. B. H.

THREE WHITE SOX ROOKIES SENT TO MINOR LEAGUES

Schalk Discharges Wafer, Veltman, Reynolds.

BY EDWARD BURNS.

(Chicago Tribune Press Service.)
Shreveport, La., March 15.—Rufus Wafer, 20 year old pitcher touted as a prodigy, was sent away from here today by Ray Schalk, the kind but stern White Sox manager. Ruf is a nice boy and Mr. Schalk hated to break the news to him.

"I'm sorry," said the manager, "but this afternoon
you'll be on your way to Marshall, Tex., which is in the Lone Star league. Hope you've been treated all right here, Ruf."

"Fine," responded the youth, gulping a bit. "There's been only one disappointment. In geography I learned Louisiana is the Pelican state and all my life I've wanted to see one of them birds, but Mr. Schalk, I've been here 17 days and I ain't seen a damned pelican."

Two Others Sent Away.

Two other youngsters, one named Veltman and the other Reynolds, also were missing from the dining room.
Veltman returns to San Antonio and Reynolds will be on the Palestine,
Tex., team.

The second and last game to be played with the Shreveport team before the Sox start on their Texas trip will be staged at the Texas league park tomorrow afternoon.

Schalk served notice on Urban Faber and Ted Blankenship that they alone will share the burden of deceiving the local batters. Both are in good condition and some Sox followers are doping them to lead the league and Faber to take an effective turn once a week throughout the season.

Put In Hard Drill.

John Moffit is convalescing satisfactorily but is approaching a lonesome stretch which will begin Thursday night and continue until March 30. During this time his usual visitors will be engaged playing against Fort Worth, Wichita Falls and Dallas.

All the regulars and leading recruits today were measured for new uniforms. There will be no change in the color scheme, white for home and dark blue for the road.

Another beautiful day enabled the Sox to put on a stiff batting practice and pep session. No game was undertaken because these matches require too much pitching energy and Schalk doesn't want to force any of the salary men just because there's a lot of baseball-weather on hand, he says.

BEN IRISH DIES; SENT PAPYRUS
HERE IN 1923

LONDON, March 15.—(P)—Ben Irish, well known horse sportsman, died of the Derby in 1923 with Papyrus, later conquered by Zev at Belmont park, died today, aged 74. Mr.
Irish was best known to American racing followers as the owner of the racing colt, Papyrus, which was sent to the United States in 1923 after winning the Derby to race America's best colt. Papyrus met Harry Sinclair's three year old colt Zev for a purse of $100,000, of which $50,000 went to the winner.

Wright, Chicagoan, Leads Buyers at Trot Sale

Lexington, Ky., March 15.—(Special).—W. M. Wright of Chicago was the biggest buyer at the sale of trotting horses here today. He obtained Rosa Brooke for $5,700, Great Excitement for $1,500, Heredia for $1,500, and Ethel Vale for $5,000.

THE BIG TRAIN IS WRECKED

Walter Johnson, star pitcher of the Senators, returns to Washington as a training camp casualty. The veteran hurler was hit by a liner off Joe Judge's bat and a small bone in his ankle was broken. Johnson's wife and daughter, Carol, are greeting him at the station.

JOHNSON RATES MACKS AS MAIN RIVAL OF GRIFFS

Doesn't Figure Yanks
Title Contenders.

Washington, D. C., March 15.—(Special).—Walter Johnson, who returned to his home here today to wait the mending of a fractured bone in his foot, figures the Athletics to give the Senators the hardest fight for the pennant this year. Naturally he dopes the Senators first. Ty Cobb's fighting spirit will do much for the Macks,
he believes.

Johnson, who isn't expected to be able to pitch for six weeks, also thinks that Detroit will be in the fight but doesn't figure the Yankees much chance to finish first or second because he doesn't believe they'll get away to the flying start they got last year.

GIANTS TRIM PHILS, 3-2.

Braden, Fla., March 15.—(Special).—Fred Leach, outfielder, joined the Phillies today, leaving only Jack Scott a holdout. In the exhibition game, the Giants cut down a two run lead of the Phillies to win, 3 to 2.

hits with five Cardinal errors today to win a ball game, 4 to 1. Grove and Gray held the St. Louisians to six hits.

PIRATES IN BATTING DRILL.

Paso Robles, Cal., March 15.—(P)— A stiff two hour batting practice marked this morning's workout of the Pittsburgh Pirates. Only the regulars participated and they learned heavily on the offerings of Mike Cregaros, Guy Morrison, Nichols, and Jow Conroy. Manager Bush said there was no foundation for reports that Pittsburgh was angling for Jimmy Reese, star second baseman of the Oakland Coast League club.

BY IRVING VAUGHAN.

(Chicago Tribune Press Service.)
Avalon, Catalina Island, Cal., March 15.—McCarthy's Cubs made a bold but fruitful effort this afternoon to bring about an end to the embarrassing manner in which they have been handling the camp exhibitions for the last two springs.

Going into the ninth, the regulars put on a full head of steam and shot three runs over the plate, thereby knotting the score at 6 apiece. It looked impressive to the hundred or so curious spectators, but it didn't mean a thing to the Goofs, who promptly stepped out with a run in their half and put a strangle hold on the decision for the day.

Kern, Rouprich, Show Skill.

The score of the contest that was as scrappy as a woman's bridge party with a large prize at stake, was 7 to 6, and marked the tenth time the Goofs have vanquished their haughty opponents since Supp. McCarthy inaugurated the camp series last year.

Kern was making the most of every opportunity and was in the game because of Jim Conroy's bad arm. Kern is not especially experienced at short stops, but he handled a number of chances with great ease and at last, but ultimately McCarthy's hunch that he is a natural hitter.

Rouprich Starts Rally.

Rouprich did his bit by pitching for the Goofs, being the successor of Percy Jones at the start of the fifth inning.
The kid showed the regular hitters a pretty bit of speed and a tantalizing change of pace.

Until Rouprich took the mound in the ninth the Goofs were in possession of six hits and three runs, but two of the runs were promoted on errors.
Then with the game apparently safe in his pocket, with a three run lead and one dam. Heathcote singled to right and a ticket to Webb filled the corners. With this opportunity in front of him, Hack Wilson let loose a single and two scored. Webb later ran home with the tying run on a sacrifice fly by Grinn.

In the Goofs' half of the last round Rouprich pelted one of Grapp's regulars to center for a single. Beck sacrificed and Scott grounded to Freitag, who foolishly ran Beck back to second, with the result both men were safe. A pass to Stephenson filled the bases. Kelly hoisted a sacrifice fly to Wilson and Rouprich sailed over the plate with the winning run.

SPEAKING OF SPORTS

BY DON MAXWELL.

Spring's most popular omen always has been the first race. But there's another and an even surer sign of approaching warmth. Watch your neighbor's back yard, and when you see your neighbor step jauntily out, armed with a driver, and thereupon begin swinging at an imaginary golf ball, you need wait no longer for an omen.
You have seen it.

Practicing with a driver in the back yard has advantages and disappointments. It is a pleasant diversion.
There's a thrill in the feel of the club;
anticipation in every downward swing.
Imagination carries the ball straight as an arrow for two hundred yards.
A midiron, a pitch, and a putt, and the ball is in the hole. On to the next tee.

The disappointments come when you play the first game on the real course.
That perfect back yard swing is revealed as an alarming fallacy. Those two hundred yards shrink, and the midiron and pitch and putt become plurals.

Few greens committees are foolish enough to permit golfers to start the season now. Spring is in the air but winter is still in the ground. A golf course may be damaged more quickly now than at any other time.

You can't hurt the old back yard.

Harry Mendel, enthusiastic apostle of the six day bicycle races, is in town.
He always is coming or going to a bike race. It's a wonder he isn't perpetually dizzy.

Statisticians might find it interesting some day to figure out how many miles Mr. Mendel has seen pedaled away in those years he's spent in the races. The rough play has been the season's series. Boston had won three games and Chicago two in the early part of the league race and Boston led the Hawks by one point for second place in the American division of the league. Both teams were sure of places in the playoff series for the championship, but the Hawks wanted to finish second on the regular season schedule.

Three Hawks Lined Out.

In the second game of the Chicagoans started a desperate attempt to tie the score and the two referees began handing out penalties on a wholesale scale. Traub, Trapp and McVeigh were ruled off the ice in succession and with Boston having three players on the ice to Chicago's two, the fans took a hand. Parker descended on the rink from the galleries and ringside stands, while a couple of chairs were hoisted onto the ice by a pair of box holders. Play was halted five minutes while the rink was cleared and the battle went on without a score.

In the third period the Hawks knocked the count when Hay took a pass from Irvin and beat Winkler to the net. Two minutes later Babe Dye shook the puck past Winkler and the customers were prepared to go home when Referee O'Hara called the play back and ruled Babe was offside when he shot. Another shower of paper followed.

The extra session was even rougher.
Nine penalties were inflicted in eighteen minutes and Babe Dye was sent off the ice and fined $25 for protesting decisions. The winning Boston goal was scored by the veteran, Sprague Cleghorn, unassisted. The Hawks protested that Cleghorn had kicked the puck into the net, but Referee O'Hara ruled otherwise, and dodging a swarm of Hawks, edged his way behind his escort out of the rink.

EAST PLUNGES ON TERRY, 50-1 DERBY CHOICE

$25,000 Bet Cuts Odds to 20-1.

BY FRENCH LANE.

There has been a 'Derby plunge' on the colt Terry, owned by Sam H. Harris. The 3 year old son of North Star III—Seamstress is a namesake of Terrible Terry McGovern, who was managed by Harris. The odds against him in the future books were cut yesterday from 50 to 1 to 20 to 1 after several good sized commissions arrived from the east. The Dexter club, of which Joe Gleason and Henry Finnegan are the proprietors, laid $25,000 against $500, then sliced the price to its new level. Other books in Chicago followed suit after a number of smaller commissions had been placed here.

While New York was taking a flyer on Terry, certain people in Kentucky were backing Royal Julian, 150 to 1 shot, to win the $50,000 race on May 14. So much money was brought here to be wagered on him that only a part of it was placed at 150 to 1. The price was cut to 50 to 1 and the Royal Julian followers backed away.

After his bad showing in the Cotroth handicap it was expected the price against Justice F. would go up, but he was still held at 12 to 1 in Chicago books yesterday. There has been a lot of money here to be placed on Klev at 50 to 1, but the best odds offered were 40 to 1 and no wagers were made.

It is with a hopeful smile that Max Hirsch, the eastern trainer, looks to the new racing season. His job probably is the most difficult of all trainers in America. First he must get the Satrap ready for the Preakness and the Derby. William Du Pont Jr. went to England and paid $100,000 for the colt. He expects Hirsch to have him ready for the two biggest races of the spring. On top of that Hirsch has in his care this spring the two highest priced 2 year olds in America in War Filer and Huskegee.

War Filer carries an appropriate name. He is a son of Man o' War—True Filer and was purchased by Mrs. W. K. Vanderbilt at private sale for $25,000. He is not as big as most Man o' War colts, but he has those powerful shoulders, sound and sturdy legs and a keen head. He has shown Hirsch lots of early speed. Whether he can go on with it only the new season will tell.

M. M. Byers of Pittsburgh bought Tuskegee, a bay colt by Black Toney—Humility, at the Saratoga auction. He exchanged $35,000 for him, the highest price paid for a yearling in the Saratoga ring last year. He is royally bred and is a better looking than Mrs. Vanderbilt's high priced juvenile.

I. W. A. C. GIRLS READY FOR FIVE FROM TORONTO

The Illinois Women's Athletic club Brownies, one of the leading girls' basketball teams in the middle west, will make their first appearance in an international contest tonight when they tackle the Toronto Young Women's Hebrew association five, eastern Canadian titleholders, at the Broadway armory.

Neither team has been defeated this season, and if the Brownies can stretch their string of victories at the expense of the Canadian quintet, they plan to bring here the Edmonton Commercial Grade, joint claimants with the Cleveland team to the world's championship.

Bobby Rosenfeld, Canada's greatest all-around woman athlete, the holder of many track records, is captain of the Toronto five. Elsie Schreiber will lead the I. W. A. C. team. A preliminary game between the Capper and Indian Clover men's teams will start at 8 o'clock.

ADVANCE GUARD HERE FOR LOYOLA PREP CAGE MEET

Four Teams Welcomed to U. S. Tourney.

Four high school basketball teams, the advance guard of the thirty-two contestants that will participate in the fourth annual National High School basketball tournament at Loyola university tomorrow, Friday, Saturday and Sunday, were welcomed by officials of the tournament on their arrival last night. Other visiting fives will arrive the city today.

St. Peter High of New Brunswick, N. J., was the first arrival. Led by Coach Fred Garland, the New Jersey party of 25 was greeted by members of the welcoming committee when they alighted from the train at the Union station at 5 p. m. Decatur High of Decatur, Ind., arrived ten minutes later with a party of 15.

California Entry Late.

St. Joseph High of Pittsfield, Mass., expected by a party of 14, checked in at 7:30, while St. Mary of Richmond, N. D., first round opponent of St. Michael of Chicago, arrived near midnight.

With the entry list closed, Loyola yesterday was forced to refuse the St. Vincent High school of Vallejo, Cal., which was tardy in accepting the invitation extended to the school for its impressive record. The Californians had an unusually strong team, and it was hoped that they would be able to play in the tourney when the invitations were forwarded.

Cardinal Mundelein has promised to attend the championship game Sunday evening. He has been unable to see any of the previous tourney games, but he has assured Loyola that he will be on hand for the titular combat. Mayor Dever also has promised to view the final battle.

Seats for 5,000.

The Loyola gym resounded with cheering and applause as hundreds of yards of streamers, pennants, and colors of all of the schools to the rafters. An additional 1,000 seats are being installed, which will permit the seating of more than 5,000 for the meet.

Mud Embargo Ties Up Traffic on Iowa Roads

BY J. L. JENKINS.

Iowa's traditional "mud tax" is breaking all former records this year in the central and southern counties of the state, according to reports from points along the main tourist trails where old fashioned earth roads are still the rule. One dispatch, received yesterday, declared that a traveling man driving a light car was stalled in the mud twenty-one times between Cedar Rapids and Waterloo and paid $100 along the way $60 to pull his car from highway holes. In Cedar Rapids they call this toll the "oats tax."

Reports from the northern tier of Iowa counties, where through pavements and gravel surfacing have been completed, by county bond issues, show the main roads in good condition and traffic going through without trouble. At points along the Lincoln highway and Jefferson highway in central and southern Iowa, however, the age old mud embargo has clamped down on traffic with a vengeance.

This condition, it was pointed out yesterday by Robert Carson, Iowa City pool roads leader, is not the result of lack of funds collected from Iowa motorists. The license fee collected from the average Iowa car owner last year was $14.60, he points out, as compared to an average of $10 in Illinois, where state bond issues have completed all-weather through pavements. In addition, Iowa owners are taxed an average of $7.25 by the gasoline levy.

Shade to Sign Today for Bout with Walker

BY WALTER ECKERSALL.
Dave Shade, California middleweight, who meets Kid Herman, the Mexican, in one of the bouts of James Mullen's boxing show at the Coliseum tomorrow night, will be signed today to meet Mickey Walker for the world's middleweight championship next summer.

Leo P. Flynn, manager of Shade, will arrive today to handle his fighter against the Mexican.

(P. & A. Photo.)

Kearns Here Next Week.
Jack Kearns, manager of Walker, will be in Chicago in a week or ten days. Walker's pilot has notified Mullen to secure Flynn's signature and that he will talk business when he comes to Chicago from the coast. This bout will be one of Mullen's feature outdoor shows.

When Walker passed through Chicago recently on his way from the coast to his home in New Jersey he told reporters he would like to meet Shade in defense of his title. Mickey believes Dave is made to order for him, but a majority of local fight fans have a different opinion.

Walker-Milligan Bout Off?
Kearns also notified Promoter Mullen that there is little probability of the proposed match with Tommy Milligan, the European welterweight and middleweight champion, going through. Kearns demanded $70,000 for Walker's end and as no money has been placed in an American bank, Kearns is not paying any attention to the contest.

Shade boxed yesterday and he plans to pull on the gloves for at least three rounds today. Billy White of New Jersey and Spug Myers of Idaho, who meet in another ten rounder, completed boxing preparation and the same was true of Andre Routis and Henry Lenard and Andy Martin and Johnny Hill, principals in the other two ten rounders.

U. S. Racquets Pair Reach Finals of British Meet
LONDON, March 15.—(P)—Clarence C. Pell, amateur racquets champion of the United States, paired with his fellow countryman, Hewitt Morgan, reached the finals today in the doubles of the amateur racquets championship tournament at the Queen's club. They defeated G. C. F. Simpson and R. C. O. Williams, 15-10, 15-6, 15-3, 9-15, and 17-14.

SENN AND TULEY LEAD PREP TRACK AS RECORDS FALL

Table of Points

Senn High school seniors and Tuley Juniors scored the largest number of points in the first section of the City High school league's indoor track meet at Bartlett gymnasium last night. Senn led the senior division with 17 1/2 points, while Tuley scored 9 to take the lead in the junior meet.

Two records were broken in the pole vault. Luby of Hyde Park soared 11 feet 4 1/2 inches to win the senior vault, bettering the old mark by one foot. In the junior vault W. Baker of Austin cleared the bar at 10 feet 4 1/2 inches. The former record was 9 feet 2 1/2 inches.

Six preliminary events also were held last night. Other finals and preliminaries will be staged Saturday at Bartlett gym. Summaries of last night's finals in the field events and preliminary track events follow:

A dispatch from London yesterday announced that the redoubtable Abe Mitchell has been named to captain the British Ryder cup team, and that the nine golfers named to take part in the raid on United States golf championships will sail from England May 21. While the dates for the Ryder matches have not been set, nor the course chosen, probably they will come after the national open.

As the open begins June 14, at the Oakland club at Pittsburgh, the date of sailing will give the British pros at least two weeks to become accustomed to American conditions and the course before the starter sends them away.

Dates of golf tournaments have a way of slipping from the memory, and to refresh your memory this list of the more important tourneys is offered. March 23-26—Southern open, East Lake, Atlanta.
March 31-April 1—North and South open, Pinehurst.
April 4-9—North and South amateur, Pinehurst.

NELSON LOSES IN NATIONAL HANDBALL PLAY

Detroit, Mich., March 15.—(P)—Bill Ranft of Los Angeles, national singles and doubles hand ball champion in 1919, was eliminated in the second round of the National A. A. U. handball tournament here today. Ranft was beaten by Max Buxbaum of New York 21-20 and 21-14. Nelson of Chicago was beaten by Berg, Toledo, 18-21, 21-10, 21-14.

WAS TORTURED BY RHEUMATIC PAIN

Found help at last in simple home treatment

How an obstinate case of rheumatism was given relief by a simple home treatment is told in this letter from England and the second "I am at times quite crippled from rheumatism," writes Mrs. E. M. Ross of 50 Combes Grove, London. "After one application of Sloan's Liniment, I find comfort and can move with ease." Sloan's gives real relief because it doesn't just deaden the pain. It helps your body to throw off the cause.

Just pat a little Sloan's on lightly. A healing tide of fresh, healing, germ-destroying blood is sent tingling through the aching place, and pain, swelling and stiffness are quickly relieved. So clean, and easy to use. Get a bottle today. All druggists—35 cents.

WALGREEN GETS SITE AT ADAMS AND FRANKLIN

BY AL CHASE.

An unusual store lease for Chicago's wholesale district, is reported by Gilbert H. Scribner, of Winston & Co. The Walgreen company has rented the store at the northeast corner of Adams and Franklin streets in the new Adams-Franklin building for ten years on a percentage basis with a guaranteed minimum.

This lease is unusual in two ways. The wholesale district at present has no drug store and heretofore the Walgreen company has selected sites which have a good night as well as day trade.

Mr. Scribner estimates that the amount of rental obtained in the first few years of the Walgreen lease will be in the neighborhood of $7.50 a square foot. This is the second store floor lease to be announced for the Adams-Franklin building, the former being to Borders. It is the sixty-ninth lease made in the structure.

Will Build 40 Bungalows. Frank F. Hunsinger has bought the block bounded by 92d, 93d, Racine and Elizabeth, 265x197, from William E. Elliott, and in association with Wagner Brothers will erect forty bungalows. Peter Everts is attorney.

The New York Central R. R. has bought all of the property between Clark street and the railroad's right of way, beginning 100 feet north of 11th and extending south to 13th. This contains 26,608 square feet and was sold for a reported $292,869, or $8 per square foot. The Albert Dickinson estate was seller. H. L. Bundy, of Quinlan & Tyson, was broker.

It was stated in this column a few days ago that Mike Telechansky had bought thirty flats at 546-77 Greenwood avenue. Mr. Telechansky's attorney, John S. Turek, informs us that this statement is all damp. There is a residence on the property and in due course of time this will make way for a thirty flat building to be erected by the indefatigable Mr. Telechansky.

Biscuit Company May Build. The National Biscuit company has bought from the American Sugar Refining company the vacant block bounded by Lexington, Flournoy, Maplewood and the Pennsylvania R. R. for an undisclosed consideration. This is just north of the large new bakery recently completed by the big cracker concern.

Plans for improvement of the property just bought have not been developed. The sale was negotiated by William A. Bond & Co., who sold the property to the sugar concern some years ago and also sold to the biscuit company all of its other land in the district.

Carl E. Erickson has bought the northwest corner of Sunnyside and Ashland, 52x145, from Dr. Frank W. Klocke for a reported $50,000 and will erect a forty-two flat building to cost a reported $250,000. Work will start April 1. Arthur Krueger & Co. were brokers and will have charge of the property.

2 CORPORATIONS INCREASE THEIR DIVIDEND RATES

The Prairie Pipe Line yesterday increased the annual rate on the common stock from $5 to $10 a year with the declaration of $2.50 quarterly. The American Window Glass company increased its annual rate from 15 per cent to 20 per cent with the declaration of 5 per cent quarterly. The Mountain Gulf Oil company and the New York Title and Mortgage company each authorized extra payments of 1 per cent.

Accumulations on the preferred stock of the United States Trust company were eliminated to Dec. 31, 1926, with the declaration of $9 a share. A $1 quarterly dividend on the new common stock of the Island Creek Coal company, recently given in exchange on the basis of four new for each of the old, places the stock on a $4 annual basis, equivalent to the $16 annually paid on the old stock for the first three quarters of 1926. In the last quarter $6 was paid on the old stock.

The American Window Glass company omitted the quarterly dividend of 1 1/2 per cent. Continental Baking declared $1 quarterly on the common, compared with $2 previously, cutting the annual rate from $8 to $4. The regular extra disbursement of the Ahmada Lead company was cut from 7 1/2 cents to 5 cents.

FINANCIAL NOTES

Mountain and Gulf Oil company reports net operating profit of $1,438,529 for 1926, before depreciation, depletion, and federal taxes.

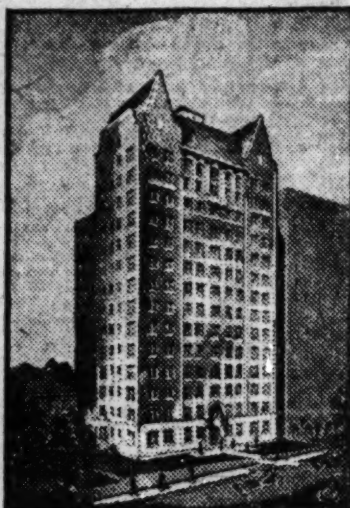

Offering will be made today of a new issue of $5,000,000 White Eagle Oil and Refining company 10 year 5 1/2 per cent sinking fund debentures with stock subscription warrants. The bonds are priced at 100 and interest to yield 5.50 per cent.

First Mortgage Fee 6 1/2% Sinking Fund Bonds
Total Issue: $685,000

Bonds dated: January 7, 1927, maturing January 7, 1937. Callable at 101 and accrued interest except if the entire issue outstanding is redeemed on or after January 1, 1930, no premium shall be paid. Title guaranteed by New York Title & Mortgage Company, Corporate Trustee American Trust and Safe Deposit Company of Chicago. Normal Federal Income Tax up to 7% on the annual interest paid when claimed; certain State taxes also refunded. Owner: Frances-Ralph Realty Co.

Security: These bonds are secured by a direct closed first mortgage on land owned in fee (114' x 142', irregular in shape), and a 14-story fireproof apartment building being erected thereon at 3733-3737 Lindell Boulevard, St. Louis, Missouri. The building will contain 124 unfurnished kitchenette apartments of two and three rooms, and a 65-car garage in the basement.

Location: The location is excellent—on Lindell Boulevard, the principal thoroughfare from the central part of the city to the western limits. Lindell Boulevard is improved with beautiful residences, apartment buildings, hotels, churches and public institutions.

Adjoining the property on the east is the magnificent new fireproof Coronado Hotel, which is considered one of the leading hostels in St. Louis.

Independent Appraisals: The property was recently appraised as follows:

Chanancy P. Heath (land) $148,250.00
C. E. Richardson (land) 145,000.00

Both are members of the St. Louis Real Estate Exchange (Board) and each has been in the business in St. Louis for many years.

Arthur J. Widmer (building) $995,000.00
William H. Smith (building) 990,000.00

Mr. Widmer is president of the Widmer Engineering Company and has been in the business for 23 years. Mr. William H. Smith is president of William H. Smith Company, contractors, and has been in the business 35 years.

Estimated Income: After allowing 10% for vacancies and deducting the operating expenses, the net annual income is estimated at approximately $92,784.00, or over twice the largest yearly interest requirements.

Price: Par and accrued interest to yield 6 1/2%.

CENTRAL UNION TRUST COMPANY OF NEW YORK, TRUSTEE

His Excellency, M.G. Masias, Minister of Finance of the Republic of Peru, has summarized his letter to us as follows:

General: The Republic of Peru is the third largest country in South America, with a population estimated at 6,000,000. It is rich in minerals and in agricultural resources. It is the world's third largest producer of silver and for many years it has exported large quantities of low cost copper. Its petroleum resources, considered of great potential value, are being rapidly developed by American and other foreign capital. A wide range of climatic conditions results in diversified agricultural production, the chief products being cotton and sugar.

Purpose of the Loan: The proceeds of this loan will be used to the extent of approximately $3,000,000 to retire outstanding indebtedness, and the balance for the purchase of machinery and plants for the manufacture of tobacco products and for construction of railroads and irrigation and sewage systems.

Security: These Bonds will be the direct obligation of the Republic and, after the retirement out of the proceeds of this Loan of the $3,000,000 indebtedness above mentioned, will be secured by a first lien on the gross revenues of the Government tobacco monopoly. These Bonds will be the first series of an authorized issue of $5,000,000 sterling or the equivalent in dollars, $24,332,500, at par of exchange. Bonds of other series may not be issued to mature prior to these Bonds, nor unless the gross tobacco revenues during the three years immediately preceding shall have averaged, and for the year immediately preceding shall have equalled, at least one and one-half times the maximum service charges on all the Bonds to be outstanding.

Revenues: The revenues pledged to secure these Bonds averaged annually for the three years from 1924 to 1926 inclusive $1,077,957, equivalent to $4,279,490 at the average rate of exchange prevailing during the period ($3.97 per Peruvian pound). This sum is more than 3 1/2 times the annual interest and sinking fund requirements on these Bonds.

These Bonds are offered when, as, and if issued and received by us, subject to prior sale and subject to the approval of our counsel, Messrs. Cravath, Henderson and de Gersdorff and associate Peruvian counsel. Interest receipts or temporary bonds will be deliverable in the first instance.

Application will be made in due course to list these Bonds on the New York Stock Exchange

MOMENTS

Billie Thompson from England to Wed Londoner

BY NANCY R.

A bit of news that is likely to cause quite a flutter of excitement among Chicago fashion-conscious circles is the fact that the young actress who has long been the darling of the fair lady in the case of the charming Mrs. Billie Thompson, wife of David P. Thompson, North State street, has cabled England word of her impending marriage to Maj. Victor Beaumont of the British army.

Her divorce in 1923, Mrs. Thompson has divided her time between Chicago and European metropolitan centers. When she went abroad last year, it was understood she would give up her Chicago place and move to London. She put her young daughter, in school in Switzerland last winter, and it was while on a holiday at San Moritz, I'm told, that she met the dashing British major who succeeded in winning her heart.

It may be Mrs. Beaumont by this time, although no date for the wedding has been mentioned in her newspaper reports. The marriage is reported to take place almost immediately.

The latest bulletin from Paris concerning Mrs. Stanislaus Zukalski, who is that she is in London. Her brother and sister-in-law, the Jack Walkers, who went to London as the cable telling of Mrs. Zukalski's arrival, have been so long in the city that they have been able to prolong their stay in Paris for some time.

Another member of the Chicago family, Mrs. Carolyn, daughter of Mrs. Charles M. Walker, and a sister of Mrs. John Paul Walker, has been visiting her aunt, Mrs. W. J. Walker, in London.

Day's News in Society

Mrs. Lucius Ordway, who has been interested to the public since the time of her divorce, has been seen in London. She played the position of right fielder in a society baseball game last night at West Palm Beach between two teams representing New York and London. The game was won by the New York team.

Mrs. Elinor Coblesky, daughter of Mrs. Charles M. Walker, and a sister of Mrs. John Paul Walker, has been visiting her aunt, Mrs. W. J. Walker, in London.

Bishop Finds World Turning to Church for Cure of Its Ills

"Prohibition and similar legislative efforts to cure modern evils have only scratched the surface in their purpose," declared Bishop Benjamin F. F. of Milwaukee, speaking yesterday at the Lenten noonday services of the Church club at the Garrick theater. "Most people today are living under a pseudo philosophy of life. The Christian religion is the only force which has survived in the rise and fall of civilizations. As a result of the sordidness of life, the crime, divorce, corruption, and suicides our social system has been disrupted. Our government has become corrupted; home life is largely gone; children are being nationalized. We have tried to remedy the situation by legislation and failed. Because our efforts to better human conditions have been unsuccessful, we must attempt to take things into our own hands and the result is communism, red radicalism, the K. K. K., and the I. W. W. Now we are beginning to hear whispers that Christ is the need of the world. Babson has said it and hence it must be heeded. The world is beginning to realize that its light is darkness and that Christ is the only light of the world."

The rule for keeping "That School-girl Complexion" regardless of your age
By NORMA SHEARER

Rule of Youth is a simple one. A rule anyone can follow, that scores of thousands do, is to keep the skin clean, fresh, and free of all accumulations of dirt and grease. It starts with gentle skin cleansing, which is done regularly with Palmolive Soap. Touch your face with no other. For it is the only skin cleanser that is made of pure, natural oils. Made for one purpose—to protect and beautify the face gently with Palmolive. Massage its balmy olive oil into the skin.

Mary Garden Returns for Visit of Few Days

Mary Garden came to Chicago yesterday for the third time this season. First she came to sing, and tarried many weeks with the Chicago Opera company.

Second, about two weeks ago, she had a few days of leisure while the company was en tour, and she routed herself via Chicago, in order that she might get her favorite hair cut at her favorite hairdresser's.

This time Miss Garden, who is stopping for a few days at the Blackstone, has come for friendship's sake. She plans to visit with several of her most intimate friends. She will depart the end of the week for New York, where she sails for Europe on the Olympic, March 26.

Would Bar from College Mentally Lazy and Incapable

Two distinct types of high school students who complete their courses and receive diplomas should not be permitted to enter colleges or universities to continue their academic work, according to J. L. Shouse of Kansas City, Mo., principal of the Westport High school.

These types he designated as the mentally incapable and the mentally shiftless. The first, he explained during a round table discussion at the convention of the North Central Association of Colleges and Secondary Schools at the Hotel Sherman yesterday, is compelled to exercise his mind to the extent of his ability in order to make passing grades. The second, while qualified to accomplish all and more than is required, succumbs to voluntary inertia or social diversions, and performs the minimum of work and study by which he may "get by."

College years are wasted on both types, the Missouri educator believes. Topics that will engage the attention of the convention today and tomorrow include the best professional training for high school teachers, to what extent it is desirable to keep college entrance requirements out of junior high school work, and reports on the cost of instruction and the committee on athletics.

Arts Club Tea Friday.

The Arts club has issued cards for a tea to be given on Friday from 4 to 6 o'clock for Walt Kuhn, whose exhibition of paintings opened yesterday at the Art Institute, and for Paul Maniship. The tea also will mark the opening of an exhibition of the paintings of Albert Bloch.

Sleeves Can Make Homely Arms Look Like What They Ain't

by Corinne Lowe

One grand thing about arms that cannot be said about legs is that you can cover them up if they're too lean, too fat, too long, too short, and no one is the wiser for their imperfections, so long as they remain tucked away in the sleeves and the right kind of sleeve is adopted to meet the particular emergency. An extraordinarily fat arm, of course, would have difficulty concealing itself even with a sleeve between it and an observing eye. But sleeve designers have been most generous in their consideration of types of arms.

The very fat arm and the very thin arm were not in mind when the first fitting full length sleeve was launched. The former much more often wriggles its way to the skin tight sleeve as they think of a brazen something to blind the superfluous flesh down with. Instead, it outlines the adipose much more sharply than a sleeve with breathing space in it. That does not mean a loose or flowing sleeve, but one of just enough dress material to keep the arms from bulging. The fat arm can be helped out somewhat in appearance by length in the sleeve. Deep cuffs at the wrist are not helpful to this type of arm. The kind of dress that has sleeves of a material differing in color from the rest of the dress is advised against.

The woman with a long, thin, angular arm helps her appearance by the adoption of the peasant sleeve or one with sufficient fullness to give breadth, which in turn detracts from length and thinness.

Evening dress has terrors for certain women with a tremendous consciousness of their skinny arms. Happily, sleeved formal gowns of georgette, chiffon and lace are in good form right now. But if an occasion arises when the sleeveless dress is imperative there is always the soft scarf to cover part of the arm and break the long line.

The fat woman with upper arms of huge proportions offers the least pleasing of sights in evening dress. Nothing short of a good reducing diet and exercise will serve to remedy this condition. Shawl or scarf add a bit more circumference.

G. D. WILLISTON BURIED; PIONEER NEWSPAPER MAN

George Deming Williston, 55 years old, who died Sunday at the home of his daughter, Mrs. W. T. Watkins of Evanston, was buried yesterday at the Watkins residence at 201 Dempsey street. He was an intimate friend of the late Joseph Medill, founder of the present TRIBUNE organization.

Mr. Williston was born at Shandon, O., and in his youth was Joseph Medill's room-mate at Cleveland. He came to Chicago at the age of 18. That winter he taught at Milwaukee. Then he returned to Chicago to work for the TRIBUNE in 1884, then in assistance with Thomas A. Stewart as the principal proprietor, and wrote Medill at Cleveland to induce him to come to Chicago.

In 1888 Mr. Williston left the TRIBUNE, in which Medill had bought a partnership, to start a newspaper of his own. At the time of the Chicago fire he was living in Lake View near the site of the old Bismark Gardens, at Broadway, Grace and Halsted streets. His large grounds were heaped high with furniture saved from homes, and on the morning following the fire he served breakfast to 150 persons.

For 20 years before his retirement in 1912 he was engaged in the stone-ware business at Red Wing, Minn. Since that time he had lived in Evanston.

After the services yesterday the body was placed temporarily in a vault at Rosehill cemetery. Burial will be at Red Wing.

FARM AND GARDEN BY FRANK RIDGWAY

Dipping house plants has been found an effective way of getting rid of the common pests that attack them. Dr. Grace Griswold, a Cornell research entomologist, calls the red spider, aphids, or plant lice, scale insects, white flies, mealybugs, and thrips the six most injurious pests of house plants. But Dr. Griswold has found insecticides that control all of them.

Red spiders are the list, but they are easily controlled. It is a spinning mite rather than a true spider and the female lays eggs that cannot be killed by any known insecticide. But, derelict, an insecticide, used at the rate of one teaspoonful to one quart of water, will kill the mites, immature adult red spider if the plant attacks is immersed in a dipper of the solution once daily for three days in succession, according to this expert.

Dr. Griswold says that aphids, or the common plant lice, may produce thirty generations a year. They appear as numerous whitish, cast skins on the foliage. Dipping the plants into a dipper of water (1 quart), black leaf, 40 (1/4 teaspoonful), and soap (1/4 ounce) kills all the aphids. The plants must be washed off the next day. A 2 percent fine nicotine dusting, however, is the easiest method for control. Dr. Griswold says.

One tablet of corrosive sublimate to each pint of water is an excellent remedy for scale mealybugs. Yolk all spray kills the scale insects, adds the Cornell entomologist.

No more Shiny nose!

Here is a chance to prove for yourself that you CAN get rid of that shiny look which ruins so many complexions. A wonderful new cream called Vauv does it. Put it on in the morning, powder over it, and for hours your nose will keep just that dull velvety look you want it to have. One girl says: "I have tried nearly every cream on the market, but Vauv is the first one that really does get rid of shiny nose. The longer I use it the less I have to powder. My skin seems to get smoother every day, and blackheads have disappeared."

Try it for yourself. Go to any drug or department store and get a 50c tube of Vauv. Use it for seven days. Then, if you are not entirely satisfied, mail me the tube and I'll refund your money and postage.

Be free at last from that worst of all skin blemishes—the shiny nose. Write: Vauv, 72 Wrigley Building, Chicago.

Two Piece Theme Shows New Modifications

by Corinne Lowe

NEW YORK.—[Special Correspondence.]—Cutting a pretty figure—that's what the borders on our blouses and frocks are doing this season. Sometimes they achieve the trick with embroidery, sometimes with insets or appliques.

It is the last method sponsored by the decorative theme which appears in the smart little two piece frock shown today. It advocates beige crepe with plain blouse and allover plaid skirt. The Y neck and the bottom of the blouse are trimmed with folds of brown georgette and this also edges the cuff. Brown buttons and a brown grosgrain ribbon on the beige felt hat reiterate this note of color contrast.

That omnipresent two piece theme represented here is being subjected to some interesting variations in the new Paris models. Several houses are taking the dear old shirt waist of a decade ago and making it into a perfectly harmonized costume. This they do by means of an overskirt and the use of inset panels and belts.

A smart example of this treatment appears in navy crepe. Over the shoulders is a deep yoke and from this depends a tucked tunic which descends almost to the hem of the plain skirt. Under this tunic appears a veste buttoned down the front and executed in white crepe de chine. Another tunic frock stimulates a shirt waist effect by tucking the entire upper section below a deep plain yoke to the hips and then running a series of horizontal tucks around the hips to give the effect of a hip band. A row of buttons runs straight down the front from collar to the bottom of the long tunic.

TRIBUNE COOK BOOK

BY JANE EDDINGTON Mulligan.

Two years and a half ago a president of a large organization wrote to me asking for a recipe for real Mulligan stew to be served at their picnic. I did not have it, but talked about it here, and a folder in my files has been collecting items and recipes for it ever since.

Mrs. Alice C. Clark kept what I wrote in mind until just recently, and then wrote that she had intended to write at the time, to tell me what was called Mulligan "on the round-up" and in the lumber camps. In her first letter she said: "Pork, beef or mutton is used, either fresh or leftover—many times the pieces that are too small to cut for frying. These pieces are cut into small bits and put either into an iron pot or large kettle, where they are cooked for about half an hour. Then are added small pieces of cabbage, onions, carrots, potatoes and turnips, also tomatoes, if preferred. These are cooked until done, then set on the back of the stove to simmer for about two hours."

"The boys on the roundup usually chuck in leftover corn or peas, but I prefer the Mulligan without. No fixed amounts of the ingredients are used. In the lumber camp the iron pot is filled full. It tastes even better the next day."

Being like Oliver Twist, I asked for more, and Mrs. Clarke wrote: "Yes, you may use my recipe. I have had no actual experience with the roundup or its cooking—just have heard the boys talk. And it is good food from the way they eat. I have seen the boys with their faces red with its cook, even the returning droves of cattle, and learned from hearsay that they have their juicy steaks, Dutch oven biscuits, Mulligan spuds, all sorts of canned goods and fruits. However, since the passing of the open range the 'chick wagon' has almost been abandoned."

There is a good deal more to this letter, and all interesting. The writer starts thus: "It was my privilege to spend one cold snowy winter in a small lumber camp among the foothills of the Black Hills." She says it took two women all day to prepare the food for twenty-six men who preferred their meat fried and did not consider Mulligan as a meat dish, but as an "extra."

Children Cry For

Fletcher's

CASTORIA

When Baby Complains.

There are many ways a baby has of expressing any pain or irregularity or digression from its normal condition of health and happiness. A short sharp cry, a prolonged irritated cry. Restlessness, a constant turning of the head or of the whole body, fretful. In these and other ways a baby tells you there is something wrong. Most mothers know that a disordered stomach, or bowels that do not act naturally are the cause of most of baby's sufferings. A call for the doctor is the first thought, but in the event of any delay there should be ready at hand a safe remedy such as Fletcher's Castoria.

Castoria has been used for baby's ailments for over 30 years and has merited the good will of the family physician in a measure not equalled by any other baby's medicine because of its harmlessness and the good results achieved.

And remember this: Castoria is essentially a baby's remedy and not a cure-all for every member of the family. What might help you is too often dangerous when given to a babe.

To avoid imitations, always look for the signature of Dr. J. C. Fitch. Proven directions on each package. Physicians everywhere recommend it.

FOR Stomach

PHILLIPS' Milk

of Magnesia

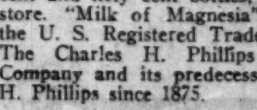

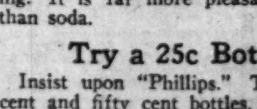

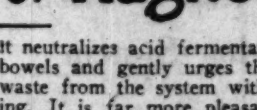

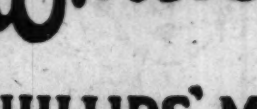

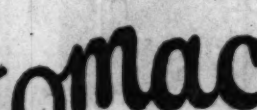

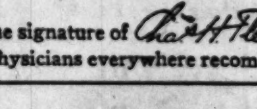

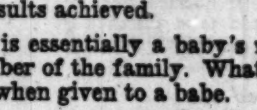

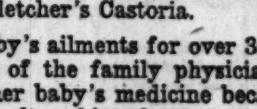

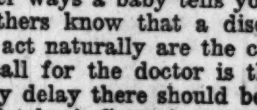

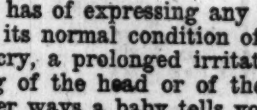

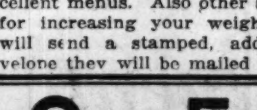

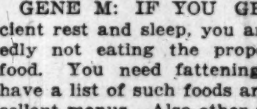

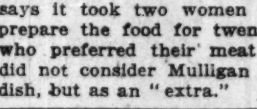

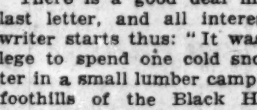

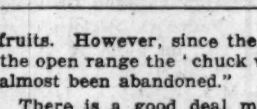

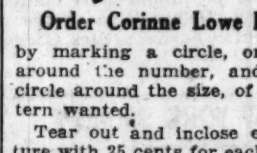

Better Than Soda

Try a 25c Bottle

For fifty years genuine "Phillips' Milk of Magnesia" has been prescribed by physicians because it overcomes three times as much acid in the stomach as a saturated solution of bicarbonate of soda, leaving the stomach sweet and free from all gases. Besides

It neutralizes acid fermentation in the bowels and gently urges this souring waste from the system without purging. It is far more pleasant to take than soda.

Insist upon "Phillips' Milk of Magnesia" Twenty-five cent and fifty cent bottles, any drug-store. "Milk of Magnesia" has been the U. S. Registered Trade Mark of The Charles H. Phillips Chemical Company and its predecessor Charles H. Phillips since 1875.

'Give 'Em Pleasure at Home,' Says Doris to Anxious Parents

BY DORIS BLAKE.

Some days it is difficult to retain your optimistic viewpoint on the younger generation. You want to believe that the modern jay fever has affected but a small minority. You want to believe that the three of mis- understanding, criticism, blame through which they are passing, will have such a purifying effect that the any that has gone before. But right now, on my desk, are four letters from anxious and distressed parents with daughters on their hands whom they do not know how to handle.

A father writes of his 14 year old daughter who is a "wild" girl. "During the last year, in an effort to become the hottest girl in her crowd, she has developed some very bad habits, including drinking, smoking, and staying out until 3 o'clock in the morning. My wife's reasoning and my scoldings do not phase her in the least. In my opinion, a sound thrashing is the only thing that would help, but my wife strongly protests against corporal punishment, although she can suggest nothing better."

The three other letters are similar in tone. And these are but one day's receipts. There is no gainsaying the fact that parents today are confronted with a problem of conduct their parents escaped. Even though they have done all in their power to frame character, there is uneasiness about the current jay philosophy of youth and a fear that infection may spread to the best brought up among them.

The one great oversight in current parental reasoning is the need of supplying amusement to girls and boys in their teens. Or, rather, the substituting of amusement for the chasing down dark roads to which our modern life contributes so largely. Our modern parents may not be able to revive the spacious home quarters that one time made home parties more alluring than the public amusement place, but as they have fitted their own requirements into more condensed space they will have to work out some similar scheme of adapting homes into amusement centers for their young. It is the only way I can see that the normal pleasure loving tastes of their children can be catered to whole-somely.

There are lucky boys and girls with mothers and fathers who realize that a good time may be provided in quarters as close as the average apartment. For the lack of space there has to be substituted a deeper understanding of the needs of the young, a better spirit of friendliness toward the friends of their sons and daughters, the welcome sign hung out in unmistakable letters. Trashing will serve no purpose. It is always so patient and kind. Let the boys make the advances and buy the candy, dear.

Let the Boys Do It.

"Dear Miss Blake: I love a young man whom I bought a box of candy. He said he couldn't accept it and asked me if I was silly. What would you advise? DIMPLES."

You embarrass a man by offering presents of any kind. Let the boys make the advances and buy the candy, dear.

BURY POLICEMAN SLAIN IN BATTLE WITH 3 CONVICTS

While the investigation into the escape of three Mexicans from the Will county jail was under way yesterday, 300 mourners gathered at the Drexel Park Presbyterian church, Marshall avenue and 64th street, to attend the last rites of Policeman Leo Grant of the east side district, who was slain by the convicts in a street battle Saturday morning.

Clustered about the casket were his widow, holding on her lap her 3 year old son, Leo Jr., and the slain policeman's parents. The Rev. Clinton C. Cox, pastor of the church, who four years ago had upon the same spot performed the wedding ceremony of the policeman and his bride, delivered a brief eulogy.

Outside a troop from the 14th United States cavalry at Fort Sheridan, waited to escort the body to Mount Hope cemetery, where it was interred with full military honors. Policemen with whom he served acted as pallbearers.
